Machado, Former President Of Cuba Held In New York

Extradition to Havana On Charges of Murder Asked
Arrest Is Made In Hospital

NEW YORK (AP)—Gerardo Machado, former President of Cuba, was arrested today at the Murray Hill Hospital by the United States marshal's office, his counsel, Francis A. O'Neill, announced.

He was arrested on an extradition request by the Cuban government, which charged him with murder, embezzlement and various other crimes.

General Machado, his attorney said, was arrested at the hospital by a detail from the marshal's office this afternoon while he was still undergoing treatment.

An operation was to have been performed "when his condition makes it advisable."

O'Neill said he had intended surrendering the former President Monday.

Ex-President Machado has been the subject of international discussion at intervals since he left Cuba years ago.

Of late he had been living in Montreal. A week or so ago it was reported he was leaving for New York, where he desired to take medical treatment. Members of his family were said to be already in New York, awaiting his arrival.

Bennett Says King Perils B.C. Market

Conservative Leader Charges Defence Made Political Football

Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett, Dominion leader of the Conservative Party, last night accused the present Liberal administration of planning to throw away the British trade preferences on which the province's prosperity depended. In the process he saw a weakening of one of the links of the British Commonwealth of Nations.

He attacked the Mackenzie King government for making a "political football" of the vital matter of national defence in the Victoria by-election campaign.

He questioned the right of the government to change the constitution of Canada.

Mr. Bennett spoke at a meeting in the Royal Victoria Theatre.

Other speakers at the rally were B. A. McKelvie, Conservative candidate in the Victoria by-election; Howard Green, M.P. for Vancouver South, and Dr. F. P. Patterson, provincial Conservative leader, who introduced Mr. Bennett.

TRIBUTE TO TOLMIE

Mr. Bennett opened his address with a tribute to the late Hon. S. F. Tolmie, of whom he said, "He had a genius for friendship."

In replacing him Victoria's voters would be casting their ballots not as mere British Columbians but as Canadians voting on an issue that affected the well-being of the Dominion for all time.

That vote was more than a responsibility—it was also a test of democracy. He believed the action of the Liberal candidate in acquiescing to an advertisement vilifying him was not one to be tolerated in a democracy, and by a city of ladies and gentlemen.

WILL ANSWER PARTY HEADS

Mackenzie, Gardiner and Mayhew Will Speak at Royal Victoria Tonight

With the Federal by-election campaign in its closing stages special interest attaches tonight to the Liberal rally in the Royal Victoria Theatre when Hon. Ian Mackenzie, Minister of National Defence and Hon. J. G. Gardiner, Minister of Agriculture, will speak in support of the candidature of R. W. Mayhew.

The two forceful speakers, will it is anticipated, besides defining the objectives of the Liberal administration at Ottawa with regard to trade treaties, unemployment insurance, defence and other matters, answer the criticism of Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett, Conservative Leader, who is in Victoria campaigning for the Conservative candidate.

Mr. Mayhew will also speak at tonight's meeting at the Royal Victoria Theatre. Byron I. Johnson will be chairman.

FINAL BROADCAST

A final broadcast will be given by the Liberals tonight over station CFCT starting at 10.30 when G. G. McGeer, Mr. Mayhew and Alan Chambers will answer points raised in the campaign by Mr. Bennett and the C.C.F. national leader, J. S. Woodsworth. Mr. McGeer will answer Mr. Bennett's 9 o'clock radio speech.

Tomorrow a ladies' meeting will be held at the Empress Hotel, at 3, when Mr. Mayhew, Mrs. Rex Eaton and Mr. McGeer will speak.

BEST GUNS IN CANADA HERE

Defence Minister Replies to Bennett Statement On Defences

The guns being moved out to Esquimalt for the new defence system are the best in Canada, Hon. Ian Mackenzie, Minister of National Defence, said today when asked to reply to Hon. R. B. Bennett's statement that he was moving "old guns from Halifax" out to the coast.

"They are the best guns I found in the department when I took charge. As a matter of interim armament on the Pacific several guns have been moved to Esquimalt pending the acquisition of more modern guns."

ADVANCE POLL OPENED HERE

Advance voting in the Victoria federal by-election began yesterday and up to 10 last night 34 ballots had been cast, Returning Officer Sydney Child announced today.

His office will be open for further advance voting from 2 to 10 today and tomorrow. The ballots are not counted until Monday night after the general poll.

There will be 143 voting stations and substations Monday. Although it is a by-election there is a big possibility of a record vote due to the keen interest being taken in the issues and the fact that there are more than 30,200 people on the voters' list, more than ever before.

Many Planes In Siberia Reported

Japanese Dispatch Says 1,000 of Russian Machines Entering China

TOKIO (AP)—The Tokio newspaper Hochi today published a dispatch from Tsuruga, asserting 1,500 Soviet airplanes had been missed in the Maritime Provinces, that part of Siberia nearest Japan.

The same source reported 1,000 Russian bombing planes were entering China by way of Sianfu, capital of western Shensi province, presumably to buttress China's resistance to Japan.

Tsuruga is a port on Japan's western coast, normally the terminus of steamship services to Vladivostok. Japanese correspondents there frequently forward rumors of developments in Siberia which are not confirmed.

The Hochi dispatch also said the Russians were rushing submarine parts to Vladivostok, where they were being assembled. This report was repeated in a Harbin, Manchukuo, dispatch to The Tokio Nichi Nichi.

Weir Studying Nurse Problems

Government Plans Regulation of Working Conditions in Hospitals

Hon. G. M. Weir, Provincial Secretary, announced today a committee of his department and the labor department is studying hours of work and labor conditions in hospitals.

The committee, said Dr. Weir, had been working on the matter for several weeks and he expected a report shortly.

"It is rather a difficult problem and we are making a careful survey before bringing in any regulations," he said.

Dr. Weir said that when regulations were made effective they would probably be promulgated by the Board of Industrial Relations which controls hours of work and minimum wages generally. It could not be very well done as a part of the Hospital Act, as had been suggested in an opposition bill in the Legislature this week.

Duke di Borgo Jailed As Plotters Are Rounded Up

PARIS (CP-Havas)—Duke Pozzo di Borgo, former lieutenant of Colonel Francois de La Rocque, leader of the French Social Party, was formally charged today with "association with malefactors."

Pozzo di Borgo recently has been the bitter adversary of De La Rocque in libel litigation.

Great interest was attached to the duke's arrest in view of the investigation underway into activities of Les Cadouris (The Hooded Ones), who the government charges plotted to seize control of France and restore the monarchy.

The Communist newspaper L'Humanite has charged repeatedly Pozzo di Borgo was a friend and accomplice of General Edouard Duseigneur, retired former Air Ministry Chief of Staff, arrested Thursday in connection with the investigation.

Japanese Take Over All Shanghai Communications

SHANGHAI (AP)—Japan tightened her grip on Shanghai Saturday morning by taking over control of all communications facilities hitherto held by the Chinese government in the International Settlement as well as the native parts of the city.

The post offices, telegraph and radio administrations and broadcasting stations XQHC and CGRA were placed under Japanese rule. Many of the principal offices and installations of these services are in the International Settlement.

Japanese authorities have not indicated whether they intend to establish their own censors in the cable and radio offices communicating with foreign countries.

CUSTOMS SERVICE

Japanese indicated plans to extend their influence in the Chinese customs service at Shanghai by placing Japanese appraisers and examiners in customs offices on the Shanghai waterfront. This will follow closely the recent appointment of high Japanese ad-

BLOOD OFFERS MADE BY 1,500

Transfusion Request From Windsor, Ont., Brings Big Response; Two Tested

WINDSOR, Ont. (CP)—By telephone, telegraph and personal calls, 1,500 offers of blood transfusions had been received at Grace Hospital here today where two young men are fighting against the deadly streptococcus viridans. Physicians doubt 10 per cent of those offering would have the right type of blood.

An appeal was sounded Thursday for those with blood of type four to come to the aid of Weston Fletcher, 28, Grand Blanc, Mich., and Robert Shafer, 17, Windsor. Transfusions must be from persons who have suffered the infection and must be of group four blood type.

TWO SELECTED

From the long list of offers, doctors have selected two as most hopeful. One is a boy in Erie, Pa., whose doctor telegraphed he said he had recovered from the infection. His record is being checked to find if he is the right blood type. The other offer is from a man in Detroit.

A woman giving the name of Marian Bolsinger, telephoned from San Francisco.

Shafer, receiving blood transfusions from his father, whose blood is of the group four type, but who had not suffered the disease, was said to be in a slightly improved condition today.

Schacht to Be Hitler Adviser

Walter Funk to Be Reich Minister of Economics

BERLIN (AP)—Reichsfuehrer Hitler today officially accepted the resignation of Dr. Hjalmar Schacht as economics minister, but immediately named Germany's "financial wizard" as his personal adviser.

Hitler announced his decision in a letter to Dr. Schacht which was released by the official German news agency.

The announcement said Dr. Schacht would continue not only as president of the Reichsbank, but would remain in the cabinet as a minister without portfolio and "personal adviser" to Der Fuehrer.

Walter Funk, Secretary of State for the Propaganda Ministry, will succeed Dr. Schacht as economics minister January 15. Until then the office will be administered by Gen. Herman Goerring, Hitler's first-ranking aide.

WORD COMES FROM PILOT AS HUNT STARTS

Airways at Hudson, Ont., Learn Plane With Eight Miners, Pilot K. Smith and Engineer K. Gregson Delayed Since Wednesday by Weather at Dog Hole Bay, Northwest of Lake Superior; Search Unnecessary as Party Prepares to Fly Out

RALLY SPEAKER

HON. J. G. GARDINER, Minister of Agriculture, who will speak at the Liberal rally in the Royal Victoria Theatre tonight.

HUDSON, Ont. (CP)—Pilot Ken Smith and nine other persons aboard a Starratt Airways plane, missing since Wednesday afternoon, were reported safe this afternoon.

The plane was safe at Dog Hole Bay, about 105 miles northeast of Hudson, said the message given out by Airways officials.

Hudson is a busy northwestern Ontario mining town about 240 miles east of Winnipeg.

The pilot's message asked for a report on weather conditions at Hudson and added he planned bringing the plane to the Starratt Airways headquarters here later this afternoon if the weather would permit.

Pilot Smith's mechanic is Air Engineer Keith Gregson of the Starratt Airways.

PILOT TOOK OFF

Word from the plane came after Pilot Len Fraser of the Starratt Airways had started a search. He left Hudson early this afternoon in a light Moth plane.

The eight passengers and crew of two left Pickle Lake, 120 miles northeast of Hudson, at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon on a 120-mile flight to Sioux Lookout. Until word came today it was believed they might have taken refuge at Root Portage, 75 miles north of Hudson, because of thick fog. The Airways maintain a camp with supplies at Root Portage.

Those aboard the plane besides the crew were: W. Fullar, Sioux Lookout; R. K. Connor, J. H. Juhl and S. Downey, all of Pickle Lake; R. Martin, George Ross, George Hunkley and George Hoffman, all of Winnipeg.

Thick fog which wrapped the northwestern Ontario gold mining country around Hudson early today lifted sufficiently to permit Pilot Fraser to take off for his intended hunt.

Crew Of Nollington Court Is Rescued

British Freighter Which Loaded Cargo in Victoria Total Loss Off Haiti

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The Tropical Radio was advised today the 17 seamen remaining aboard the British freighter Nollington Court, in distress off Haiti, had been rescued, but the vessel was a total loss.

A message from the tug Killereg said:

"Tug Killereg took remaining

17 crew from Nollington Court. Nollington Court is a total loss. All lives saved."

KINGSTON, Jamaica (CP)—The British freighter Chagres arrived here today with 18 officers and men rescued from S. Nollington Court.

Crews of both vessels told of a grim struggle aboard the sinking vessel.

On her way to England, the Chagres changed her course last Tuesday and raced to the assistance of the stricken freighter.

MacDonald Funeral Service In London

All Classes, From Leaders to Humblest, Pay Honors at Last Rites

LONDON (CP)—Ramsay MacDonald, who has been described as a "forgotten man" and the most misunderstood of Britain's political great ones, was mourned in death today by royalty, statesmen, diplomats and humble friends who gathered about his flag-draped bier in Westminster Abbey.

It was a genuine pouring out of national grief at the passing of the farm boy who became Prime Minister and who only a matter of weeks ago left the scenes of his early political triumphs for South America in search of the "most elusive of all forms of happiness—rest."

The coffin, covered with a Union Jack and flowers, was borne from the home at Hampstead where the "son of the people" last resided to the Warriors' Chapel in Westminster Abbey, where the funeral service was conducted.

The service preceded the last journey to his beloved Lossiemouth, where a casket contained

Ransom Bill Is Passed In Illinois

Woman Receives $10 Note Paid In Vain For Freeing of C. S. Ross

CHICAGO (AP)—Discovery of a $10 bill passed recently in northern Illinois was part of the $50,000 ransom paid in vain for the return of Charles S. Ross gave fresh impetus today to the search for the abductors of the 72-year-old retired Chicago manufacturer.

It was the sixth ransom bill to make its appearance since the kidnapping two months ago.

Mrs. Mabel C. Ocock of Union, Ill., reported she had received the bill a week ago.

which had ripped a hole in her bottom when she struck a submerged object in the vicinity of Turk's Island.

The Nollington Court, heavily laden with a deck cargo of lumber, had a marked list to port and was being swept by mountainous seas when the Chagres hove in sight.

First thing the crew of the Chagres noticed when they got close to the Nollington Court was that the captain had all his men lined up on the starboard side. Later they learned he was giving all the crew a chance to stay with their ship or take to lifeboats.

It took more than an hour to manoeuvre the Chagres within hailing distance of the Nollington Court. The first boat off the stricken freighter brought 15 officers and men. A boat from the Chagres made the return trip and came back with three more, leaving 17 still aboard the hard-pressed Nollington Court.

GRIM STRUGGLE
As darkness fell over the wind-whipped waves, a grim struggle began, with the Nollington Court drifting slowly before the wind and current, and the Chagres attempting to stand by. At 10 that night they stood to their lifeboats, as it looked as though they would have to go promptly to the rescue of the men still aboard the Nollington Court.

The damaged freighter's dynamo failed, and her wireless went out of commission, but her captain apparently thought they could keep afloat and signaled the Chagres not to risk a night rescue.

At 2 in the morning the Chagres shivered from end to end and the word passed around that the Nollington Court had gone aground. Just a few minutes before the captain of the stricken freighter had sent up rockets signaling that his vessel was going ashore, and urged the Chagres to save herself. A minute later the lookout of the Chagres glimpsed the hills of Haiti rising ahead, and it was the sudden pull as the freighter went full astern that jarred the ship.

Lifeboats were again manned, but the Chagres was herself in such a precarious position the crew dared not launch a boat. Helpless to do anything but save herself, she stood out from the treacherous shore, and lost sight of the Nollington Court.

The Nollington Court left Victoria October 18, after loading 300,000 feet of lumber at Ogden Point. Her destination was the United Kingdom.

Defences Keep Ladysmith Dark

LADYSMITH, B.C. (CP)—Pedestrians walked in the dark in this Vancouver Island town last night—because Canada has started a programme to improve national defence.

Alderman Robert Joyce told his fellow council members delivery of iron standards for installation of mercury vapor lamps on First Avenue had been delayed because steel and iron orders for defence purposes had priority.

WORD COMES FROM PILOT AS HUNT STARTS

The missing plane was equipped with skis a week ago when lakes and rivers showed strong ice surfaces, but subsequent high temperatures honey-combed and weakened the ice in places.

Adverse weather kept aircraft grounded Thursday. A wet mist had prevailed since Wednesday and flights would have been hazardous because of ice forming along the leading edge of wings and propeller.

Pilot Smith's plane carried emergency rations sufficient for a few days.

Ken Smith, a Toronto-trained pilot, is 29 years of age. Keith Gregson, chief engineer of the airways firm, founded nine years ago by R. W. Starratt, Moncton, N.B., a man who farmed in Alberta's Peace River district before establishing at Hudson.

The Pickle-Crow mining area lies east of Red Lake. The main gold producers of the district are Pickle-Crow and Central Patricia. Other properties in the district in various stages of development are Albany River, Winoga, Patricia, Kaw-Crow Patricia, Hudson Patricia, Sol d'Or, Argosy, Spirit Lake and Uchi.

Administrative officials in local customs office.

(The Shanghai dispatch does not indicate, however, the Japanese have yet taken over any of the functions of the Shanghai Municipal Council, the international body which governs the International Settlement under the foreign consular corps).

Japanese army units seized a pontoon and ferry installations in the Whangpoo River formerly belonging to the Chinese Greater Shanghai city government.

There were reports, not immediately confirmed, the Japanese also intended to seize the customs jetty on the International Settlement's waterfront, largely used as a landing place by foreign fleets.

NEW COMPLICATIONS

Serious international complications were feared in the event of Japanese attempts to control operations of foreign cable and radio companies, including the American Commercial Pacific cable and Mackay Radio companies and British and Danish concerns. These companies, by contracts with the Chinese government, hitherto have accepted all outgoing messages from the Chinese administrations and submitted to Chinese censorship.

Meanwhile spearhead units of Japan's Shanghai armies tore into the heart of Chinese defences Friday in a drive their commander-in-chief declared would force speedy collapse of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's regime.

CHANGE AT DAWN

Friday afternoon's reports from the front as given out by a Japanese spokesman were that three Japanese columns had fought their way into Changning, on the southwestern shore of Lake Tai. Chinese were driven from the walled city at dawn.

The troops had crossed to the western shore of the lake, some 30 miles southeast of Nanking, in a makeshift fleet of junks and sampans. Other Japanese detachments advanced westward from fallen Wushu, which had been a strong point of the Chinese defence line, to Wusin, 20 miles beyond.

HE WAS AFRAID TO CROSS A STREET

Lost His Nerve After 12 Months' Agony

Suffering from acute rheumatism in both his knee joints—treated in hospital twice without result—so unnerved that he was afraid to cross a street—how readily every rheumatism sufferer will sympathize with this man. Read what he says:

"For 12 months, I suffered pain and misery with acute rheumatism in both my knees. Twice, I was treated in hospital—but it was no use. I could not walk up or downstairs. I was afraid to cross the street, for I had lost confidence in myself. Fourteen days ago I started taking Kruschen Salts, and already I am a new man. I can walk with a smart step, go up and downstairs with ease, and cross the street with complete confidence. My rheumatism is getting better every day."—D.L.

In a good many cases, rheumatism cannot resist the action of Kruschen Salts, which dissolve the painful crystals of uric acid—often the cause of those aches and pains—and assist the kidneys to eliminate this poison through the natural channels. (Adv.)

Timber in Canada Seen Soon at End

OAKVILLE, Ont.—"The lumber supply of Canada will soon be exhausted if steps are not taken to replenish our forests," A. E. Roberts, of the Men of the Trees Society, told the Men's Club of St. Jude's Church here.

He pointed out that the supply of good timber in British Columbia, often called inexhaustible, will soon be at an end after 50 years of lumbering.

Mr. Roberts recalled that in his youth there was a good supply of pine near Toronto. "One of those trees is a rarity this side of Parry Sound today," he maintained. "The forest line in Ontario is slowly moving north."

Siam's 13,000,000 people have heretofore been rated about 90 per cent illiterate, but compulsory education is reducing the figure.

H. J. PAINTER PASSES AWAY

Man Who For 23 Years Was Vancouver Assessor Dies

NEW WESTMINSTER (CP)—Henry J. Painter, who pioneered at Vancouver in 1886 and for 23 years was Vancouver city assessor, died in a hospital here Thursday. He was 81.

A native of Hanley, Staffordshire, England, Mr. Painter had a colorful career before and after he first reached Vancouver in the year of incorporation, from Port Moody, with his wife and infant daughter, on the paddle-wheel steamer Yosemite.

He came to Canada as a young man of 24, taking up residence in Winnipeg for a year in 1882. He was the first man sworn in as a justice of the peace in the city of Louis Riel after the rebellion.

Since his retirement in 1970 he had lived on a small farm a few miles east of here.

He is survived by one daughter, Emily, in Vancouver, and five sons, Edmund P. at Campbell River, B.C., Harry J., Robert, Joseph and Francis in Vancouver.

The funeral will be held in Vancouver Saturday.

Two issues had been raised in the election, Mr. Bennett said; that of defence and that of trade.

"If defence is to be made a political football we might as well shut up shop," he said.

He attacked Hon. Ian MacKenzie, Minister of National Defence, for failure to realize his responsibilities as a cabinet minister in raising defence as a party subject in Victoria.

To the minister's statement that the Conservative regime had failed to do its duty for the defence of Canada, Mr. Bennett replied that his government had come into power faced with a world disarmament conference.

"I am one of those who believe the only way there can be permanent peace in the world is by disarmament—but it must be universal," he said.

When the need for rearmament faced the whole British Empire, the Conservative government called for a technical report on Canada's needs. The reorganization of the militia and the programme of defence for which the Liberals now took credit was entirely mapped under the Conservative regime. Further, he said, Premier King, in his campaign before the 1935 general election, attacked the Conservatives for their defence expenses.

Mr. Bennett charged party favoritism in the conduct of the present government's defence programme.

"Whose money is it—that of the Liberal party?" he asked, then went on to say:

"And yet men are not permitted to work on these defence projects unless they have a patronage ticket from a Liberal committee in the city of Victoria."

He asked why "worn-out guns" were being taken from Halifax and mounted around Victoria, and why there was "continuous delay" in the ordering of aircraft and other material.

He urged a "solid defence policy," and said, "I do not mean policy of defence."

URNS TO TRADE

Mr. Bennett turned to trade. "I think some people have forgotten there was a depression," he said. "I want you to realize that the trade of the world shrank by two-thirds. There was only a third left."

The Liberals remembered how trade fell during his government but forgot that Canadian exports and imports shrank by almost $300,000,000 during their administration between 1929 and 1930.

Trade continued to get worse until 1933. Since then it had got progressively better.

"The Liberals are reaping where they have not sown when they say to you 'Look what we have done,'" Mr. Bennett said.

"When we came into office we were buying more than we were selling. We had to stop this to prevent us going into bankruptcy, and we did."

Mr. Bennett told how his government asked the large manufacturers to sign an agreement promising not to raise prices to consumers if tariffs were raised unless the prices of raw materials went up. They all signed and except for one they all kept their word.

The result of this was that in two years there was a favorable trade balance. But for this action Canada could not have survived, Mr. Bennett said.

And the tariffs remained today very much the same as they were.

OTTAWA PACT.

Mr. Bennett told of the signing of the Ottawa agreements. In 1930 he had asked the MacDonald government in Britain for preferences but had been refused. In 1931, on the night the National Government was elected, he wired the prime ministers of all British dominions an invitation to attend a conference, which was accepted.

In a month at Ottawa he was able to secure entry free into the only stable market in the world—Great Britain. He concluded agreements with the other dominions.

And Mr. King called this a "Tory conspiracy," Mr. Bennett said.

For 30 years Great Britain under Liberal regimes had had a preference in Canada, but Canada had no preference with Great Britain. This ended in 1932, when a reciprocal treaty was signed.

He spoke of the several dominions as members of a family who gave one another a preference.

"We are trustees for that part of the Empire called Canada—it is our estate. It is our duty to develop it."

"I can't see anything but trouble if you're going to break down this preference for one nation and not for another."

What would Canada's position be, he asked, through its new link with the United States, which were daily making it more clear that it would not be mixed up in England's troubles.

He charged the King government, which boasted of relieving unemployment, was "going to work to create unemployment" by its trade policies.

Mr. Bennett quoted the wording of the act of 1934 which authorized the United States to enter into trade agreements. It stated the pact were to be "for the purpose of expanding markets for the benefit of the United States . . . to raise the standard of living, to overcome unemployment and increase purchasing power."

The act also seriously limited the tariff concessions that could be granted, he said, and confined the agreement to a period of three years.

"What are you getting for what you give?" he asked.

He begged all Victoria, and especially the young men and women whose future depended on the progress of British Columbia, to voice their protest against this move to "lessen the strength of our family."

B.C. THREATENED

British Columbia, he said, was being "threatened as it had never been threatened before."

Referring to social legislation, Mr. Bennett said:

"We introduced the unemployment insurance act, and if it had been left alone it would have been in operation now."

DR. F. P. PATTERSON

Dr. Patterson, in his introduction of Mr. Bennett, called him "the man who in the depths of depression did more for the trade of Canada and bonds of the Empire than any man in the history of the Dominion." Yet the Liberals had themselves chosen trade policies as the battle-ground in the by-election.

Before Mr. Bennett spoke the whole audience rose spontaneously and sang "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

B. A. MCKELVIE

"This is not a popularity contest between Mr. Mayhew, Mr. King Gordon and myself—there are real issues," said Mr. McKelvie in an address which lasted only four minutes.

He spoke of Mr. Bennett as "the foremost statesman this country has produced," then went on to add: "He is reviled in Victoria by the Liberal press and the Liberal party, and accused of being a traitor to Canada."

... To the man who wrote that advertisement I say 'Shame!'

Of himself, Mr. McKelvie said "I have stood for Vancouver Island, British Columbia and Canada within the Empire."

HOWARD GREEN

Mr. Green paid tribute to the memory of the late Hon. Dr. S. F. Tolmie. He liked to remember Dr. Tolmie in his last year when he was obviously happy at Ottawa meeting old friends and making new friends.

"Are we or are we not going to continue these Empire preferences? That is the one great issue before Victoria today," Mr. Green declared.

At the time of the Ottawa Conference, Canada took the lead in the Empire. Today Canada was at the tail-end of the Dominions, he said.

Robert Harvey, who was in the chair, said the Conservative party stood clear on the issue of British preference, and the Liberals and C.C.F. stood equally clearly against them.

Confidence Vote For Chautemps

PARIS (AP)—Premier Camille Chautemps won his second vote of confidence within a week when the Chamber of Deputies Thursday approved a government bill to raise the wages of government employees.

The vote on the measure earmarking 1,745,000,000 francs (about $59,260,200) for pensions and wage increases was 518 to 6. The bill provides less than the civil servants asked, but more than the government originally intended to grant.

Hypothetical

R. T. HON. R. B. BENNETT REPEATED here last night the speech he delivered in Halifax a week ago. All he had to do was to impart to it a little local color, a few touches of humor, and a heavy coating of what, for the want of a better name, we shall have to call imperialistic fervor.

The former Prime Minister was not vindictive, and we do not think Mr. Bennett will consider us disrespectful when we suggest to him that it must be no easy task for one so eloquent as he unquestionably is to talk for two hours with the tongue in the cheek. And that task is all the more difficult, of course, when an address rests upon a hypothetical base.

We say hypothetical because the Rt. Hon. gentleman knows—and knows that every thinking person in Canada is aware of the fact—that his alarm for the future of the trade pact entered into at Ottawa in 1932 is, to put it mildly, wholly unjustified. He charges Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, the Prime Minister of Canada, with entering into some sort of an understanding with the British government to waive, for example, the preferential treatment which British Columbia enjoys in the market of the United Kingdom. We quote from the Colonist's report of Mr. Bennett's speech:

"I would ask you people of this city to have the government of Canada say, before Saturday night, whether or not the preferences on lumber are to go. That is the issue in this by-election. I know your government has agreed," and there Mr. Bennett halted, leaving the inference the government has already committed itself to certain things concerning the lumber exports of Canada. Mr. Bennett went on: "Let this country know that this matter has been settled in a corner; that it has been discussed in Cabinet. It is an hypocrisy to say that this thing is being done in the sacred name of peace."

The former Prime Minister made not a little play with the term "in the sacred name of peace." He used it several times; especially in his attempt to convince the audience that the King government, in its trade associations with the United States and its attitude toward the proposed negotiations between London and Washington statesmen, had lost its economic balance "to an hypocrisy"—"the sacred name of peace." So said Mr. Bennett: "A vote for the Liberal candidate is a vote for the interference with those (Ottawa) pacts."

The opposition leader's inconsistencies, of course, are familiar to political students, so that his declaration that the King government had renewed the treaties last session—"they juggled the words a bit"—and therefore are not in danger of interference, naturally becomes flat when considered together with the loud note of alarm which he sounded so many times. Again says Mr. Bennett: "In the sacred name of peace we are going to give up the thing of the people of western Canada."

Does Mr. Bennett really think that Mr. Mackenzie King, jealously guarding the doctrine of British Preference, bequeathed to him by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, is deliberately or by any form of cupidity, scheming to destroy Canada's trade with the United Kingdom—which gives us, and has done for many years, a three-to-one advantage—merely to develop the gospel of "economic appeasement" of the United States? Does Mr. Bennett think that Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain, the head of a government in Great Britain more preponderantly Tory than any party which has enjoyed office at Westminster since the Reform Act of 1932, is going to sell out the empire to the United States, either for what the former Premier calls the cause of "economic appeasement," "in the sacred name of peace," or for the material returns which flow from trade and commerce? Does Mr. Bennett suggest that Mr. King and Mr. Chamberlain have held a conspiratorial conference? One would think so, because he said last night: "I know your government has agreed."

The Canadian government has agreed with Great Britain that more trade between the English-speaking nations will strengthen their policies of peace. Does Mr. Bennett mean that if he were in office he would warn Britain that having "trick or trade with the Yankees" would sound the death-knell of the empire?

One of Three

THE BY-ELECTION IN VICTORIA NEXT Monday will be a battle of ballots between three candidates.

One of these candidates, Mr. Mayhew, is a supporter of the Liberal principles and policies for which Mr. Mackenzie King stands—principles and policies which have also been approved by the people of seven of the nine provinces of Canada.

Another candidate wants to go to Ottawa to support principles and policies definitely discarded by the Canadian people.

The third candidate is a visionary who wants Victoria to send him to Ottawa to join a party which has only seven members in a House of Commons composed of 245.

Exit One-way Traders

IT IS TRUE THAT THE UNITED STATES Fordney-McCumber and the Hawley-Smoot tariffs injured our export trade with the neighboring republic. This is what they were intended to do by the Republican, or special privilege, government then in office. Like the Tory party in Canada, the Republican party in the United States is the party of the vested interests, the party which still clings to the idea that imports are a creation of the devil, that a one-way trade is fiscally feasible.

As soon as Democrat, or Liberal, President Roosevelt had started the machinery to restore order in his own house, which his predecessors in office since 1920 had very badly disrupted, he began to examine his country's external trade. It was down at a very low ebb. He obtained permission from Congress to negotiate trade agreements with other countries, coupled with the authority to cut tariffs as much as 50 per cent where occasion seemed to require it.

One part of the result of the action Mr. Roosevelt took was a mutually-profitable agreement with Canada, negotiated by his administration and Premier King. Now are pending official conversations with the United Kingdom—and the United Kingdom is looking forward to the successful conclusion of such negotiations. But how comes it that an ultra-Tory government in Great Britain is so enthusiastic about these forthcoming pourparlers? The answer is a simple one. The ministry at Westminster has tried a policy of protection which it is now quite unashamedly admitting has not worked. Alas! These are sad days for the one-way traders.

Elusive Mr. Bennett

ONE OF THE MOST NOTEWORTHY omissions in Mr. Bennett's reference to Canada's trade last night was the Dominion's business with the United States.

The former Prime Minister, of course, tries to have a little fun out of what he calls an "economic appeasement" policy; but he gives a wide berth to the argument which proves beyond peradventure that even "economic appeasement" is vastly more profitable than his own "blasting" policy.

Nor did Mr. Bennett tell his audience that in the 12 months ending last September, Canada sold goods to the United States worth $490,033,945 and bought goods from the republic worth $465,615,774—totaling more than half of Canada's entire trade with the world and a balance in our favor of $24,418,171. He did not mention Canadian sales of gold to the United States worth more than $100,000,000, or the favorable tourist balance of about $160,000,000, which gives us a credit margin of more than $300,000,000.

Does Mr. Bennett believe Canadians should have "no truck or trade" with the Yankees? If he does, he differs from the vast majority—and he knows it.

A Lively Ending

TONIGHT WILL MARK THE END OF the by-election campaign as far as the radio is concerned. Under Dominion law it is not considered a good thing for Canadians to hear any politics over the radio after the third night preceding an election.

The fact that Mr. G. G. McGeer, K.C., M.P. will be the final radio speaker, means that the windup of the campaign on the air will be anything but soporific. At 10:45 o'clock, "Gerry" will go on the air to answer Mr. Bennett's 9 o'clock broadcast. All who heard Mr. McGeer's midnight broadcast, concluding the last federal campaign, will look forward to something lively tonight.

Notes

Germany's hoof and mouth disease epidemic has spread to Westphalia. Could this be nature's response to the goose-step and war speeches.

President Roosevelt has had a toothache. But, as The Toronto Star thinks, the pain of it is probably nothing compared to the headache Wall Street has.

Movie theatres now have every convenience except an outside warning that will enable one to miss the previews and the shorts that turn out to be advertising.

Quite pathetic, as he pleaded with Victoria not to desert him, was the great Bennett, pointing to the 170 Liberals out of 245 in the House of Commons—the Conservative party under his policies and leadership having dwindled to only 38 members.

We are not supporting the C.C.F., but in fairness we must say that its national chairman, Mr. M. J. Caldwell, M.P., in his broadcast at the conclusion of Mr. Bennett's address last evening gave the nearest and most effective bit of political rejoinder we have heard in a long time. In 15 minutes of calm, deadly direct statement, he destroyed the effect of Mr. Bennett's two hours of ponderous laboring on trade treaties and tariffs. It was undoubtedly the quickest bit of balloon-puncturing in the campaign.

GOVERNMENT AND INDUSTRY

From London Daily Telegraph

As the Prime Minister put it: "Broadly speaking, I would say that the proper function of government in relation to industry is to create the condition in which trade and commerce can be most successfully carried on, only exercising as much control as may be necessary in the public interest." The principle of benevolent co-operation, without undue interference, is the antithesis of the Socialist party's creed, which implies a regulation in every department of life amounting in effect to conscription.

Across the Bay

By BRUCE HUTCHISON

HUMAN STUFF

IT IS WHEN it gets down to the ancient business of granting supply to his Majesty that the Legislature always puts off its party manners, becomes human and begins to touch the actual and many-sided life of British Columbia.

General debates, such as we have been listening to for exactly a month, are highly theoretical. They sound fine, but they don't butter many parsnips. On Thursday, considering the estimates, the House got down from oratory to just such things as parsnips—and whisky, and village fairs and pheasants—and the cost of running an automobile—things, all of them, that affect everybody in the province, and that every member here can understand.

Dr. MacDonald was the first minister to run, with his estimates, the gauntlet of the dual opposition, but, an old-timer at this business, handled himself well and came through without losing any feathers. With his estimates, as well as all other business before the House, the C.C.F. led the opposition with Mr. Winch, the younger, in charge, and doing a competent job.

The C.C.F. members, by the way, early started to take the leadership of the opposition away from the more numerous Conservatives and up to this point have certainly succeeded beyond their hopes. This is impressive in a legislative chamber, but what the effect will be on the public outside no one here can judge.

The Conservative group evidently thinks the effect won't hurt it or help the C.C.F. At all events, it is remaining almost silent and letting Mr. Winch carry the fight, which he does with all the resources of guerilla warfare.

BEER

GENERALLY, however, Mr. Winch's warfare of Thursday was good-natured sniping, in which the Conservatives joined briefly. It rose into serious attack only on the old question of beer, which still bobs up here year after year. Dr. Telford, with two glasses of water on his desk, is in charge of beer and liquor for the C.C.F. and is curious about the price of each, but he didn't get much out of Mr. Wismer.

Mr. Wismer says he hasn't been in office long enough to know much about liquor and asks time to make a general investigation of that intriguing subject. That doesn't satisfy Mr. Bruhn altogether. He wanted an investigation into The Nanaimo Herald's charge that the politicians get a rake-off on every barrel of beer sold to the government and he wanted to know also why the government refused to allow a brewery to be operated in Nanaimo.

Mr. Wismer said that if the government investigated the complaints of every jerk-water paper it would have no time for anything else—a remark which interested Mr. Pearson, who thinks his Nanaimo deserves a better description than that. As for the refusal to allow another brewery in Nanaimo, that, said Mr. Wismer, was a matter of government policy which he couldn't discuss.

The thing having thus been lifted to that sacred level it could not be touched any more.

HARD LIFE

THE LIFE of an opposition, of course, is always more pleasant than that of a government, but it has its troubles. Mr. Speaker Whitaker added to them by a ruling which seems destined to have a profound effect on the future business of the House. He ruled out two C.C.F. resolutions, one inviting consideration of a psychopathic hospital and the other directing attention to a possible six-hour day in industry.

Young Mr. Winch had contrived these resolutions cunningly to avoid dictating government policy, to ask the House only to "consider the advisability of" his proposals. But Mr. Speaker ruled that he couldn't get around it that way, and it looks as if most of the C.C.F. programme is doomed.

One has reason to doubt that the socialist group will take this lying down, but it seems to be waiting to see what Mr. Speaker will do with the rest of its resolutions. Mr. Pattullo says they are mostly out of order, and on these matters a prime minister is nearly always right.

INGENUITY

TO MR. MAITLAND, who protested about the difficulty of getting opposition views before the House, the Premier made the reply that the Conservative gentlemen should have ingenuity enough to operate within the rules. Mr. Pattullo never lacked it in opposition, nor did he fail to complain when necessary about the treatment accorded him by the Conservative Government.

The Premier also laid down the undoubted theory that the Legislature was in charge of the government, but it is largely theory; and a moment later he was saying that the government intended to do the country's business so long as it was in charge of the Legislature. An interesting slip of the tongue which, perhaps unconsciously, revealed the fact of all British parliaments instead of the theory.

GREAT as the power of the government is, I am afraid we can't control the speculator, and it would do no good to give him advice.

Letters to the Editor

SAYS C.C.F. ANTI-VETERAN

To the Editor:—I see by the press that Grant McNeil, M.P. for North Vancouver, is here to speak for King Gordon, the C.C.F. candidate.

I heard Grant McNeil in one of his campaign speeches state to a large group of ex-service men in North Vancouver that he represented the ex-service men as a member of one of the organizations in Ottawa and knew what their wants and wishes were. He was elected for North Vancouver.

Capt. Sheppard, M.C. of Victoria, wrote a letter to the headquarters of the C.C.F. in Vancouver asking if the C.C.F.—as a body were elected and obtained power, what would the C.C.F. do for the returned soldiers. As there was an election on at the time, the C.C.F. printed their platform on a four-page folder, stating what they would do if they were elected. On page 3 of this folder was a note in answer to Capt. Sheppard: "The returned soldiers cannot get anything better than anyone else."

This was in larger type than the rest of the printing and with a black border around it. I believe Capt. Sheppard resigned from the C.C.F. through this.

As Mr. Woodsworth, the leader of the C.C.F. is also here, and as he sponsored a bill to give the franchise to the Japanese in Canada, who at present are shooting down innocent women and children in China, I was wondering what Mr. McNeil will say about the C.C.F. placing the ex-service men who fought and bled for Canada on the same footing as the Japanese.

CECIL RHODES.

CANDIDATE APPROVED

To the Editor:—Allow me to say a few words about the candidate carrying the Liberal banner in greater Victoria, Mr. R. W. Mayhew. We have in the past often done the wrong thing, politically here in Victoria, and have suffered the consequences.

We have in Mr. Mayhew a man of high and lofty aims, and with the intelligence to further those aims. He has proven himself to be a successful business man. He has wide knowledge of world affairs, derived from his travels in different parts of the world to see conditions as they really are. Sending Mr. Mayhew to Ottawa will ensure real representation for the capital city of British Columbia, and the people of this province can be assured that their affairs will be looked after with real results.

Mr. Mayhew has proved he can talk for Victoria and British Columbia in no uncertain manner, but with the deep interests of his constituency and its surroundings at heart. So let us get together and send him to Ottawa.

SO MANY CHILDREN

So many children God has got, I sometimes wonder whether or not

He has forgotten me.

So many prayers reaching His throne,

So many making their wants known;

Perhaps He can't hear me.

But no! God forgets no one at all.

Neither the rich, the great, the poor, the small;

The tiniest of sounds reaches His ear,

And so I will cast away doubt and fear.

For He does see me;

He does listen to my plea.

BRITISH WORKMAN'S WEEKLY WAGE

London Cable to Chicago News

The average British industrial worker receives a wage of about

$12.50 a week, according to a survey begun by the Labor Ministry

two years ago. The survey covered more than 5,500,000 workers in 230 industries. Railways and mines were surveyed separately, the former showing an average of less than $15.50, and the latter under $13. The printing and paper group led with nearly $21 a week.

MILLION DOLLAR INCOMES

From The Minneapolis Tribune

It may not be counted as one of the indisputable evidences of advancing recovery, but the fact remains that there were eight more persons reporting an income of $1,000,000 in 1935 than in 1934. According to the treasury department, there were 41 persons with taxable incomes over $1,000,000 in 1935 compared to 33 in the previous year, or one for about every 3,100,000 of population.

We have a long way to go before we reach the 1929 level, however, for in that year we were able to count 513 people with annual incomes that ran into seven figures.

Letters to The Editor

MR. BENNETT AND SOME OTHERS

To the Editor:—Bruce Hutchison, reporting former Speaker Perry's speech in the House November 19, has done a worthwhile service to the "real" people, the workers, whose efforts keep life going here and everywhere else.

Mr. Perry's opinion that R. B. Bennett, as a "true Liberal" should belong in a "real Liberal Party," is specially of interest to all decent-thinking people! Blasting Bennett! The man, who would not wet-nurse the "derelicts" of the west! The man who was responsible for the slave-camps all over Canada (it might do his physique a lot of good to work in such a camp himself for a while at 20 cents a day and all (!) found); for the Ballantine pier and Regina tragedies; the man who rode rough-shod over the "common" people, using the great majority, he, as Prime Minister, had at Ottawa to trample those who, at the cost of hard labor, long hours, tried to hang on to life itself, without any chance of relief from their pitiable situation, instead of using his majority to give the people, as a whole, their rightful share in the products of industry and agriculture, and this while he professed to be a "Christian," while he saw fit to amass a fortune of millions of dollars, as reported in a federal election campaign speech in The Vancouver Sun in 1935; oh, perfectly legal, sure, according to laws made by and for profiteers.

This same man refused, not long ago, any help whatsoever to a fellowman—a recommendation would have been sufficient, whose father (to whom he, Bennett, came in the Alberta foothills as a young man, practically destitute at that time) had fed him and helped him to hang out his shingle as a lawyer in a nearby town!

Bruce Hutchison mentions in the same columns corporation lawyer Maitland of Vancouver; he, being a staunch supporter of R. B. Bennett, and my special friend Robert D. Harvey of Victoria—who has a method of abusing others in The Colonist, knowing that that paper will not give those others a chance to come back at him!—would undoubtedly form a splendid triumvirate for that new "real Liberal Party"!

One wonders where McKelvie and Mayhew get off at in such a setup! McKelvie, who, not long ago, admitted in a public meeting up-island that the members of the two old-line parties in the Legislature simply had to do (in caucus) as they were told to by the vested interests (Twig was there and did not deny it), when he advocated secession of Vancouver Island, and Mayhew, who took a very nice stand towards the workers (some of whom supply his living) in the Kidd report some years ago (under the Tolmie administration). We have heard plenty about the tactics of Liberals and Tories alike, of course, but I wonder if even many Liberals will have thought, with Mr. Perry, that "real Liberalism" has to be bolstered up by R. B. Bennett et al!

If the voters have any sense they will vote for King Gordon.

F. H. STAVESMAN,
Langford Lake, V.I., B.C.

MEAGRE AND INADEQUATE? BETTER TELL IT TO EASTERN CANADIANS

To the Editor:—It is quite clear that in the present campaign the Liberals have not hesitated to exploit the meagre and inadequate defence policy that has been adopted by the government, and they ask that their candidate be returned in order to support that policy, as witness the headline of the meeting held at the Royal Victoria Theatre last Thursday night—Support of Defence Policy Is Urged Here By Liberal Speakers—and although the minister sought to create the impression that he was not seeking to make the defence of Canada a political question, nevertheless he did so in no uncertain terms, and he sought to show that the Conservatives had been blameworthy in this regard, where the Liberals had not been, and generally to make political capital of what has been done by the present government. His leader, however, Mr. Mackenzie King, said in the House of Commons "we can see the reason why for a considerable period of time defence estimates were kept at a very low figure, and also why at the present time estimates have had to be increased, not only by Canada but by countries all over the world who are seeking to maintain their liberties and freedom, and free institutions. . . . I am not going to criticize my predecessors in office because of the extent to which economies were effected in the Department of National Defence. . . . The fact is through years of depression, while there were large expenditures in some directions there were economies in others. It was perhaps natural that the Department of National Defence might be considered a department in which economies could be practiced."

The whole tenor of the Liberal campaign is to suggest, and it is regrettable that the minister has been a party to the suggestion, that there is a new Liberal policy with regard to defence, and such is certainly not the case as the minister himself pointed out in the debate in the House of Commons on Feb. 15, 1937, where in reply to Mr. Coldwell he made the following statement: "May I tell my honorable friend there is no new defence policy embodied in these estimates; there is no new policy here at all!"

ROBERT D. HARVEY.

EXPLAINS KING GORDON SUPPORT

To the Editor:—I support King Gordon in preference to either of the other two candidates, because he preaches the gospel of mutual co-operation and international goodwill, and speaks the language of the new humanity, while they still mumble the shibboleths of the old. As a believer in the basic principles of Christianity, I could not do otherwise.

I do not mean to imply that Gordon is a better man than his two opponents. They may be good men, also, I do not know. But this I do know, and this is, that they stand for the old worn and decadent system under which we still live, and which, in line with evolution, must give way to something better. It has played its part in human progress and has given us much that is fine, as well as much that is bad, but the first gun fired in 1914 sounded the knell of its doom.

In the 23 years that have now elapsed since then, vast changes have taken place; the greatest of which has been man's outlook on economic life. Russia made the first great crack in the dike which Capitalism had erected to dam the waters of progress, and other breaks have occurred since. Those who feared or hated progress have sought to repair the breaks, but their efforts have failed, and relentlessly the waters have poured through. How long it will be before the entire dike collapses, none can say. All we can do is to prepare a new and better channel so that when the break does occur, chaos and destruction will not result.

I support King Gordon not for personal reasons, but because he is one of those who are out to prepare the way for the new order of peace, justice and happiness.

THINKS VICTORIA SHOULD TURN GO-GETTER

To the Editor:—Mr. Mayhew has proven himself to be a successful business man and his world-wide travels have put him in touch with conditions as they really are.

We in Victoria have been sending opposition members to the various governments, and what have been the results? Victoria have been left holding the sack. Present developments have proven in the transfer of the many federal offices that have been moved to Vancouver from Victoria. Why? Because we had no member at Ottawa that was looking for our affairs here in Victoria. Vancouver is well represented both federally and provincially. They seem to get everything they go after either from Victoria or Ottawa—and we all know the reason why.

So it behoves us here in Victoria to see that we have real representation at Ottawa, and it is to be hoped that we have the good common sense to send a man of Mr. Mayhew's ability and integrity as our representative.

bulk of the speech" broadcast from Victoria on May 10 by Mr. B. A. McKelvie as a Conservative candidate. Having in mind the current defamatory libel suits in Alberta, it occurs to me as remarkable that, if the statements in this pamphlet are not in accordance with fact, those responsible for its printing and distribution were not prosecuted. On the other hand, if the statements referred to are indeed facts, then it is even more remarkable that some enterprising Conservative K.C. has not instituted proceedings for, what the pamphlet calls, "malfeasance in office" and demanded return to the taxpayers of this province of at least the 7 1/2 per cent gift to be retained by the useless go-betweens.

My guess is that had this pamphlet been sponsored by those who are not bankers — (Fellow! I nearly did for myself then!) I mean by those who do not think that Messieurs Les Banquiers are a sine qua non of Nature, they, the sponsors, would be out of the cold and the wet for the winter months at least!

Married At St. Mary's Today

Miss Barbara Grant
Is Bride Of
Mr. Herbert J. Barratt

A wedding of wide interest throughout the province was quietly solemnized this afternoon at 2.30 at St. Mary's Church, Oak Bay, when Barbara, youngest daughter of Mrs. F. W. Grant of Chestnut Avenue, became the bride of Mr. Herbert John Barratt, third son of Capt. and Mrs. H. S. Barratt of Vancouver.

Archdeacon A. E. de L. Nunn performed the ceremony and Mr. F. T. C. Wickett was at the organ. As the bride entered the church the choir of St. Margaret's School, of which she was a former pupil and teacher, sang "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden."

Given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. John A. Grant, the bride wore an imported New York model two-piece suit in spruce green lightweight woolen. The tailored frock with its belt of snakeskin was worn beneath a hip-length coat of the material, quilted all over, and with it she wore a model hat of matching felt, trimmed with a novelty brown ribbon and brown veil, and snakeskin shoes. Her corsage bouquet was of Tallman roses.

Miss Muriel Chadwick, the only bridesmaid, was attractive in an afternoon frock of American Beauty crepe, with long sleeves, the swing effect of the skirt being achieved with groups of sunray pleatings. Her hat of felt was in matching tones, and to complete the charming ensemble she carried a suede bag on which was posed a posy of violets and Johanna Hill roses. She also wore a round posy of the roses at her throat. Mr. Harry Barratt was his brother's groomsmen.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Barratt left for a honeymoon in the south, and on their return will make their home at Woodfibre, B.C. The bride traveled in a three-piece suit of Stewart Miller tweed in brown and green tones, with the coat and skirt of plaid, and the topcoat of brown and green mixture with plaid pockets and collar. Her hat was of brown felt en suite. Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were Capt. and Mrs. H. S. Garratt of Vancouver, the bridegroom's parents, and his sisters, Mrs. J. Kirkland and Mrs. Leslie Macdonald of Vancouver, and Miss Catherine Horne of Vancouver.

Nationality Of Women Queried

Canadians' Status Subject Of British Statement

OTTAWA (CP)—By virtue of regulations effective since January, 1932, a Canadian woman marrying a foreigner may retain her Canadian citizenship if she elects to do so. Her Canadian status is abandoned only if she chooses to adopt the nationality of her husband.

Attention of government officials was drawn to information given the British House of Commons Monday by Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden when he expressed the opinion Canada had not adopted legislation of this type.

Mr. Eden told the House of the Australian and New Zealand legislation providing a British woman, although married to a foreigner, may elect to retain, while in those countries, her full citizenship rights.

Prior to January, 1932, a Canadian woman marrying a foreigner sacrificed her Canadian citizenship and took that of her husband. This gave rise to a serious difficulty when United States passed legislation under which a British woman marrying an American citizen did not automatically become an American citizen.

Result of this situation was that many Canadian women marrying American citizens found themselves without a country. They could not have passports to leave the country, and had no nationality.

At present, unless she files the necessary application to take the citizenship of her husband, a Canadian woman marrying a foreigner may retain her full rights to citizenship. Similar legislation was adopted in England in 1933, officials here stated.

Says Social Security His Aim

R. W. Mayhew Tells Esquimalt Women Of Policies

Pledging himself to work for social security with all his energy, ability and intelligence, Robert W. Mayhew, Liberal candidate, outlined his policy before an interested gathering of women in the Esquimalt Athletic Hall yesterday afternoon. Other speakers included Mrs. Paul Smith, M.P.P., Mrs. Rex Eaton of Vancouver, and Mr. G. G. McGeer, K.C., M.P.

Declaring that he was going to Ottawa in support of British Columbia industry and business in its fullest sense as implying labor and every aspect of this province's business relations with the rest of Canada, Mr. Mayhew reiterated his interest in such matters as alleviation of unemployment; in housing and the further extension of the housing plan, including the clearing of the slum areas; in insurance and in social legislation.

HUMAN FACTOR FIRST

The human being was the greatest factor in life, the candidate maintained, as he pledged himself to work in the interests of both young and old. He advocated vocational training for the youth of the country, and expressed his sympathetic interest in penal reform, particularly in such schemes as the Borstal system, designed to give delinquent youth a second chance.

MRS. PAUL SMITH

After paying tribute to Mr. Mayhew, Mrs. Paul Smith touched upon the proposed trade negotiations between Great Britain and the United States, which the Conservatives had assailed. These should be approached with a broad vision, as leading to greater unity between the English-speaking nations, and any temporary disruption of treaties between Canada and the United States would be readjusted, she felt sure.

Mrs. Rex Eaton dealt with the accomplishments of the Mackenzie King government, touching particularly on the National Employment Commission which had been appointed to investigate the best method of dealing with the problem of unemployment, from the long-range point of view as well as from the emergency standpoint.

She praised the home improvement programme, under which $7,000,000 had been spent, ensuring employment in the construction trade, which had been most hard hit during the depression, and noted that a housing scheme was under consideration to take the place of the present system under which $14,000,000 had been paid out as rentals for relief cases, many of whom were living in places scarcely fit for human habitation.

Mrs. Eaton also spoke in favor of penal reform, particularly commending the Borstal system, and other humanitarian measures which were being considered by the present government.

Mr. McGeer reminded his audience that by sending a Liberal to Ottawa, Victoria would show its support of an administration that had shown its interest in the building up of union between the English-speaking peoples and thus helping to ensure the peace of the world.

Miss Kay Allen and Miss Patricia Comerford sang, accompanied at the piano by Miss Lucy Thomas, and little Irene Thomas contributed an amusing recitation. The artists, together with the chairman, Mrs. Nancy Hodges, were presented with corsage bouquets.

"Gold-diggers" Target of Bill

LONDON (CP)—Reform of the breach of promise law is the aim of an "anti-gold-digger" bill to be introduced to the House of Commons by W. S. Liddall, M.P. for Lincoln.

Liddall has pointed out damages should go to the jilted girl who has spent money on a trousseau has given up her work or has been engaged five or six years.

But the girl who becomes engaged after an infatuation of a few weeks should not be allowed to sue for breach of promise, he contends. He further claims a broken engagement in this case often saves a certain divorce later.

LONDON (CP)—Jean Forbes-Robertson, daughter of the late Sir Johnston Forbes-Robertson and his wife, Gertrude Elliott, is carrying on the stage tradition of her parents, playing a lead role in Priestley's "Time and the Conways."

St. Mark's W.A. will hold its annual Christmas bazaar on Wednesday next, December 1, at 3 p.m. in the parish hall. There will be many attractive wares for sale.

HOROSCOPE
 "The stars incline, but do not compel"
SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1937
 Astrologers read in the horoscope for today signs that are depressing and confusing to the average person. The stars seem to smile only upon those who enjoy security and prosperity.
 Dependence upon tried leadership will be more and more evident in public affairs, it is forecast. This tendency may be encouraging to those who desire long tenure of public office.
 Christmas shopping is subject to the most stimulating and most profitable planetary influences. Many costly gifts will be bought during this season, over which broods the shadow of future events of international importance.
 Persons whose birthdates it is have the augury of a year of good fortune to which new friends contribute. They should be careful of contracts.
 Children born on this day probably will be dependable and successful. Subjects of this sign usually have vision as well as caution.
 Samuel Dickey, theologian, was born on this day, 1872. Others who have celebrated it as a birthday include Fanny Kemble, actress, 1809, and Robert R. Livingston, jurist and statesman, 1746.

QUESTION:
 DEAR DR. GORDON—
 I am thinking of inviting a relative from England to make her home with me in Victoria. What do you advise?

ANSWER:
 The Conservative and Liberal statesmen are urging increased immigration in order to fill our vacant spaces and share our taxes. If your relative has independent means she will be welcomed with open arms, but if she must seek a job she may find difficulty in getting by the immigration officials.
 Indications are that we are about to enter a business recession. I would therefore advise your relative to remain in England where unemployment insurance and health services have already been instituted.
 Yours sincerely,
 J. KING GORDON.

Election Rumor Heard in Britain

BATH, Eng. (CP) — Rt. Hon. Herbert Morrison, one of Labor's leaders, in the House of Commons, hinted Thursday evening the government might be considering a general election next year.

Addressing a meeting here, Mr. Morrison, chairman of the London County Council, said he had heard "somewhat circumstantial rumors" that government tacticians were "seriously contemplating an early general election." The present Parliament, in which the National Government had a wide majority, was elected November 14, 1935.

TO EXAMINE LIQUOR LIST

Attorney-General Will Study Prices of Liquors in British Columbia

Attorney-General Wismer told the House yesterday, when estimates for his department were being discussed, that he intended to examine the entire liquor price system of British Columbia. He had only been in office four months, he reminded the Opposition.

In reply to questions from across the House, Mr. Wismer said the government had not thought it advisable to recommend to the federal government that a license for the distillation of beer at Nanaimo be granted.

R. W. Bruhn, Independent, Salmon Arm, referred to an editorial in a Nanaimo newspaper, intimating the government was receiving campaign funds from other brewery interests. He said it was a serious charge to lay against public men, and he thought it should be investigated.

He said he could see no reason why the government should refuse to let anyone build a brewery where it was promised to make better and cheaper beer.

Such a refusal, he said, was making people lose faith in party government.

Mr. Wismer replied that Mr. Bruhn was making political talk about an article that appeared in a "jerkwater journal," which brought protests from Hon. George Pearson, the member for Nanaimo.

Dr. Telford asked why B.C. liquor sold more cheaply in Ontario than in British Columbia, and why imported liquors, which cost less to make, sold at higher prices in this province.

Mr. Wismer said the Liquor Board had the price lists and had nothing to hide in this regard. The information was there for anyone to see.

He explained it had been the policy of the Liquor Board to give local industry needed help, but "I don't say the principle is right and they haven't had enough protection."

Dr. Telford said the higher prices on local liquor caused the public to have grave doubts regarding remarks that liquor interests were making contributions to campaign funds. He said the government should clear itself of such suspicion.

He coupled this warning with a demand that some life service patrol be started on the coast, with the Provincial Police in charge. There were no fast launches available for police work on the coast, he said.

Instead of increasing the grant for training school for Provincial Police he advocated more attention to a launch patrol service.

SAYS WOODEN BUSES MENACE

Maitland Tells House Province May Have Tragedy Because of Them

Because many school buses had wooden, instead of steel bodies, the province faced the possibility of one of the greatest disasters in its history, R. L. Maitland, Conservative, first member for Vancouver-Point Grey, told the government yesterday.

The municipalities wanted to save money, Mr. Maitland said, and so trucks with wooden bodies were permitted.

"They carry 30 and 40 children, and if ever you have a bad crash it will be on the head of everyone in this House," Mr. Maitland said.

He particularly offered his advice to the Provincial Secretary. The estimates for the Department of the Attorney-General were under consideration at the time.

He coupled this warning with a demand that some life service patrol be started on the coast, with the Provincial Police in charge. There were no fast launches available for police work on the coast, he said.

Instead of increasing the grant for training school for Provincial Police he advocated more attention to a launch patrol service.

SCHOOL NECESSARY

The estimates called for an additional $6,000 for the training school, which Attorney-General Gordon S. Wismer said was very necessary for the proper training of police. He said he favored faster launches, but they were impossible at the time.

"I'm willing to be shown if anything is wrong; but how many launches would $6,000 buy?" he asked.

Mrs. Dorothy Steeves, C.C.F., North Vancouver, asked the Attorney-General why there were increases in salaries in the higher brackets of his department. Mr. Wismer replied it was necessary to make them if the government was to retain the services of good men. He said he would like to see increases in the lower brackets, but they would not be given at the present time.

Mr. Wismer praised the Provincial Police, which he said was one of the finest police forces in the world and recognized by authorities all over the continent as such. In some places, because of increases in population the police force was understaffed.

E. E. Winch, C.C.F., Burnaby, said that in a properly conducted and educated community an increase in population did not necessarily call for an increase in the police staff.

Dr. J. Lyle Telford, C.C.F., said the House had been informed, persons in the province had been badly treated by the police. He was referring to remarks made by E. C. Henniger, Liberal, Grand Forks-Greenwood.

Mr. Wismer said no such thing would be tolerated again, if it had occurred.

Mr. Henniger said his remarks referred to an instance of 14 years ago.

The Attorney-General promised to look into all complaints made by members regarding the Provincial Police.

Dr. J. J. Gillis, Liberal, Yale, said 95 per cent of all provincial policemen in the province were from the coast cities and the lower mainland. He said there were plenty of men in the interior willing and anxious to join and he asked the Attorney-General to remember them.

Estimates of $863,046 were passed by the House for the Provincial Police.

Oak Bay Park To Be Studied

Next year's Oak Bay Council will make a full study of the condition of the Oak Bay Park and of the work needed to put it into proper condition.

Yesterday afternoon the municipal council, after receiving a letter from the Victoria Rugby Union complaining the park was dangerous to play on, decided to leave the matter to the incoming councillors.

Councillor P. A. Gibbs referred to the need for a playground for children in the municipality, and said he would like to see the park properly developed. Other councillors seconded his views.

Councillor J. V. Johnson suggested "I should like to see the works committee get into rugby tugs and go down and play with the boys some day."

Councillors Vernon Jackson and William Ellis will sit as a court of revision on the municipal voters' list at the Oak Bay municipal hall at 5.15 on the afternoon of December 10, it was decided at a meeting of the council yesterday.

predicts NORMAN BEL GEDDES, authority on Future Trends

"You won't have to wait for traffic lights to change when you want to cross Main Street in 1960," says Mr. Geddes. "Conveniently located underpasses will take you right across without a stop."

"Traffic going 10 blocks or more will speed along 50-mile-an-hour Express Streets connected by ramps with a network of Local Streets."

"These local streets will also be free from interference—from building-line to building-line. Open areas beneath buildings will provide parking space...loading platforms for trucks. Pedestrians will use elevated sidewalks—shop and cross streets at the second-story level."

Stop and Go

NO MATTER WHERE YOU LIVE, you average 30 stops a day...and one stop can waste enough gasoline to drive you 5 city blocks!

That's why stop and go is costly!

While traffic authorities are planning "the City of Tomorrow," Shell engineers have developed a fuel, Super-Shell, to meet today's driving problem TODAY.

They have found a way to rearrange the chemical structure of gasoline... actually to balance it!

Automotive engineers use the term "motor-digestible" to describe Super-Shell, because at all motor speeds it is converted so QUICKLY, so COMPLETELY into power.

The regular use of Super-Shell will save money on your stop and go. There's a Shell dealer near you.

SECOND SECTION

Toronto And Detroit In Brilliant Form

Sports Mirror

By PETE SALLAWAY

WHEN New York Americans of the National Hockey League signed the veteran defenceman, Ching Johnson, the other day, they gave Manager Red Dutton a real job. The former Ranger bulwark has always been outstanding any time he stepped onto the ice, but he must have a blue line buddy. The finding of that buddy was what gave Dutton a headache. The boss had three alternatives—Hooley Smith, Happy Day and Johnny Gallagher.

Dutton, who proved himself a gambler, turned back the clock with a double wrench and partnered the 40-year-old Ching with the late thirtyish Day. It is needless to say the experiment was a success as Johnson and Day played outstanding hockey with the Americans walloping the world champion Detroit Red Wings. Off to a flying start, Johnson may justify the $3,750 the Americans are putting on the salary line.

Baseball critics have it that Al Simmons will be waived out of the American League and taken by the New York Giants. No American League club is willing to pay any kind of a purchase price and come close to meeting Simmons' reported $22,000 salary. Bill Terry is in dire need of power and has a hunch the Pole will do a comeback like Heinie Manush.

Mel Harder wants the Cleveland ball club to trade him. Looking at his 1936 record, one would suspect that Harder was losing some of his stuff. But those closest to the Indian situation declare that, following a brief spell of arm trouble early last spring, the only thing the rather frail righthander lacked was enthusiasm.

Bob Feller is most unpopular with his Cleveland mates, especially the pitchers. It seems that they got a big laugh out of the youngster posing in pitching stance before full-length hotel-room mirrors. He even pitched the pillows stacked against the head of the bed. It might not be a bad idea for some of the other Cleveland pitchers to adopt the Feller system.

Mike Jacobs, Madison Square Garden's boxing czar, believes the Anti-Nazi League unfair in boycotting Max Schmeling and not taking action against Bernd Rosemeyer, the automobile racing driver, and Gottfried von Cramm, the tennis star, and the other German athletes who appear in the United States. In other words, Jacobs does not care about the embargo but is concerned about the coin.

COLWOOD GOLF

Finishing 1 down, Mrs. Cecil Eve headed A Class in the women's par competition held yesterday at the Colwood Golf Club. Mrs. G. Quincey tied for first place in B Class, both being 8 down.

Defeat Rangers And Chicago In Major Ice Tilts

Red Horner Stars as Leafs Knock Over Lester Patrick's Club 3 to 1

Race Tightens

From villain to hero in one act, with a whistling symphony by the rest of the National Hockey League. That's the sudden change in roles accomplished by Reginald (Red) Horner, the flaming-thatched man from Toronto who once was Conny Smythe's bad boy. And 16,000 who watched Reginald the good lead Toronto's Maple Leafs to a 3 to 1 triumph over the Rangers at New York last night echoed the amazement of other audiences around the league.

You'd laugh if you read it in one of those pulp magazines. Wives of other players used to hush their children with Red's name. But here's the burly defenceman who served 169 minutes in penalties two seasons back—124 last winter—becoming a team general and ace playmaker overnight. If Conny Smythe isn't sleeping better than when Red used to adorn the penalty bench he should be.

GAVE TWO ASSISTS

Horner contributed two important assists last night to raise his total to nine as the Leafs extended their lead in the Canadian section. The continuance of his reform movement would have stood alone as the night's feature but for the comeback of Detroit Red Wings, who lurched from a long string of losses to defeat Chicago Black Hawks 4 to 1 before 9,500 fans at Detroit. The win was just about the timeliest staged anywhere all season, for it left the Wings just a point behind the third-place Hawks and two behind the second-place Rangers in the American section. Detroit's world champions looked their parts at last in recording their second victory in eight games.

But Horner still held the centre of the stage, leading the league in assists. As a rushing defenceman he has looked as mighty this year as Eddie Shore used to look for Boston, and gone is the spirit which brought penalties and defeats to the Leafs. His amazing new form may be just what Toronto has needed ever since King Clancy and Happy Day started to lose effectiveness.

JACKSON SCORES

The Leafs' power line of Harvey Jackson, Gordon Drillon and Syl Apps added to lofty point totals in the first period with the opening goal, scored by Jackson on assists from his mates. That lead was good until the eighth minute of the third, when Bobby Kirk sank a pass from Babe Pratt to tie the score.

Pastor-Mann To Battle Tonight

NEW YORK—Bob Pastor and Nattie Mann, two of the up-and-coming big boys of the fight business, tangle for 10 rounds or less in Madison Square Garden tonight for the right to survive in what now amounts to a heavy-eight "elimination" series. With Joe Louis and Max Schmeling slated to fight for the title next year, provided, of course, that Max defeats Harry Thomas December 12, the challenging field is narrowed down to the youngsters on the way up, and a few of the older war horses, such as Max Baer and Jimmy Braddock, along with the always threatening Tommy Farr.

Stewart After New Ice Rule

Chicago Manager Thinks Clubs Should Name Their Starting Line-ups

CHICAGO—Major league hockey, believes Bill Stewart, should adopt organized baseball's starting line-up rule. Baseball rules require that a starting line-up list be handed to the plate umpire before a game, while hockey law merely calls for a list of eligible players, leaving managers free to change their battlefronts at the last minute. Stewart, new manager of the Chicago Black Hawks, will ask the National Hockey League board of governors to adopt the rule as the result of a line-up shifting contest with Manager Jack Adams of Detroit Red Wings last week. Adams refused to name a starting line-up, whereupon Stewart likewise refused. The match was delayed almost 10 minutes while the managers and officials wrangled over which should put his team on the ice first.

Trio Hoop Games At Y.M.C.A. Gym

A three-game hoop card will be presented tomorrow evening at the Y.M.C.A. by the Sunday School Basketball League. The first two teams, First United and Chinese Students, junior quintettes, will take the floor at 7.15, while the second game will bring together Chinese Students and Christ Church in an intermediate engagement. At 9.15 Bombers and St. Louis College will battle.

Rep Trial Rugby Match Tomorrow

Candidates For McKechnie Cup Squad in Action at Macdonald Park

Victoria's "rep" squad rugby material, 30 local oval ball aspirants whom Coach Wally Brynjolfson considers eligible to represent the Capital City against Varsity in Vancouver next week, will be seen in action tomorrow afternoon at Macdonald Park.

While three league games are on tomorrow's schedule, the trial match will draw the rugby interested public when they can see for themselves how the local "big three" rugby material is shaping. The senior B division-leading Scottish are billed to meet the Navy at Admirals Road in what should be a keen match. The Scottish defeated the Garrison, and the sailors turned back Cowichan in last week's games. Out for another win in the intermediate section of the loop, the blue and gold ruggers of Victoria College will clash at Oak

Strong Squads Battle Tonight

West Road hoopsters will be out to square accounts with Hoyle-Brown this evening when they meet in the headline duel on the High School gym basketball card.

The merchants gave the readers quite a drubbing on their last meeting, but West Road will go onto the floor tonight determined to sweep Hoyle-Brown off their feet. This will be difficult, however, as the merchants have a smooth-working aggregation that can play sweet ball if they want to and also rough it up if the occasion calls for it.

To eliminate the squawks about the refereeing, league officials will bring in "Moose" Rogin, Dominoes first-stringer, to do the arbitrating. One of the hottest battles of the season is anticipated when these two quintettes clash.

Wimpy's Crescents who gave Kingham-Gillespie a tough scrap the other night will take the floor against St. Louis College Alumni in an intermediate A boys match that will open the show at 8. Prior to the league games the Victoria Dominoes will hold a work-out on the gym and fans who wish to may come early and watch them go through their paces.

The preliminary game for tomorrow evening at the High School will bring together the Mt. Tolmie C.C.F. and Spencer's in the men's senior C section. In the feature the Dominoes will meet Dan's Market, Seattle.

Macaulay Women Elect Officers

The annual meeting of the Macaulay Women's Golf Club was held last evening at the home of Mrs. C. S. Brown. Mrs. G. Silburn was elected captain of the club and Mrs. C. Brown secretary. Those elected on the executive committee were: Mrs. W. Wilson (chairman), Mrs. P. Ford and Miss I. Jarvis. The social convener for the year will be Miss Dolly Robinson. Plans for the following year were discussed, the next event being a tombstone competition for December 5.

Wrestling And Boxing Lessons

Clash Tomorrow in Feature Game of English Football Programme

Boxing and wrestling lessons will commence this evening at 8 at the Armories under the direction of Louis Callan and Tommy Drysdale. All youngsters in Victoria are welcome to attend these training sessions which will be held throughout the winter months. Callan is planning on staging a series of outdoor shows next summer.

LONDON—English soccer will be on two fronts tomorrow—first round proper of the cup, with third division and minor league clubs participating, and the abbreviated league schedule embracing first and second division representatives. Major teams enter the competition at the fourth round.

Although league teams are given the nod in cup play, minor entries, headed by Kettering Town and Dulwich Hamlet, are expected to provide first-class opposition. Kettering Town, East Midland League champions, meet Crystal Palace, and Dulwich, last year's amateur cup winners, play at home against Torquay United. It is Dulwich's first home cup game in five years.

OFFER RECORD PRICE

Prominent among top-flight clubs this year, Chelsea, alone in second place, behind Brentford, made its all-time high bid for a player during the week. The Pensioners offered £12,000 ($60,000) for R. W. Westwood, Bolton's international inside-left, but the Trotters would not part with him. Chelsea was prepared to raise the "ante" but the third-placers still refused.

Main course on tomorrow's league menu is the Sunderland-Charlton Athletic battle at Roker Park. The Athletics haven't won a game in six weeks and are in a five-team tie for eighth position. It is believed their Canada-United States tour during the summer has taken the "edge" off their attack. The Roker Park eleven holds the cup.

Charlton will present a revamped line-up. Owens, 18-year-old top scorer on the team's reserve squad, will make his league (Turn to Page 19, Col. 4)

Pacific Ties Banquet Theme

North Saanich Service Club
Holds Annual Dinner

The need for closer ties between the British nations bordering the Pacific was the theme of two of the main addresses at the annual banquet of the North Saanich Service Club held in the clubhouse on Mills Road, near Sidney, last night.

Lieutenant-Governor Eric W. Hamber and Bishop H. E. Sexton were guests of honor, and George M. Murray, M.P.P. for Lillooet, was the principal speaker in the crowded hall.

Behind the war clouds in the Far East was a system of labor and society which would destroy the whole western system if Japan ever extended her frontiers through China to India, said Mr. Murray in an address on "Canada in the Pacific."

Japan would seek to consume the British Empire not by military conquest but by the invasion of markets with the products of a system of labor peonage, and in doing so would topple over the whole edifice of social services on the American continent and in Britain and the European countries.

The whole theory of the development of the British Commonwealth of Nations had centered around the idea of approaching the Far East from both directions. The stories of India and Canada had been somewhat similar, with the early explorers followed by the East India Company and the Hudson's Bay Company, he said. He traced the parallel further, giving the names of the several men who had served both as Governors-General of Canada and Viceroy of India.

Canada, as the main link in the "all-red" route to the Orient, had a vital interest in the present events in China.

EXCHANGE URGED

Mr. Murray urged a tightening up of the ties between Canada and the Antipodean Dominions. He suggested an exchange of newspapermen and school teachers as one of the ways in which this could be accomplished, and also called for better shipping and cable services between Canada and Australia.

Bishop Sexton, proposing the toast to the club, also urged closer relations between Canada and Australia. Speaking of his own experiences in the Antipodes, he suggested the formation of a Canada-Australia club on lower Vancouver Island to strengthen ties already formed by the number of Australians living here.

The Lieutenant-Governor, replying to the toast to the guests, praised the work of the North Saanich Service Club for its community spirit, and as a fine example of the proper interpretation of service.

GOVERNOR HONORED

An unusual event on the evening's programme was the presentation to the Lieutenant-Governor by Capt. C. R. Wilson, president of the club, of a script of original bagpipe music, bound in leather. The tune was composed by Pipe Major Donald Cameron, and after the presentation the governor called the pipe major to him and thanked him in an address, part of which was spoken in Gaelic.

Pipe Major Cameron piped in the guests before the dinner and took part in the programme of entertainment which followed it, and which had a distinctly Scottish flavor.

Capt. MacGregor Macintosh, M.P.P. for the Islands, who was among the guests, was the number of Scottish folk songs.

Other features of the programme included songs by Marjorie Watson Goodwin, soprano; national dances by Gwen Dewar, Evelyn Watson, Ina Robertson and Lorna Doull; songs by Arthur Jackman, baritone; marionettes shown by Jack Filtress and piano accompaniment by Ernie Fullerton. Philip Hughes was the accompanist.

OTTAWA GETS STAR BERTHS

TORONTO.—It's a good thing for Lew Hayman's Toronto Argonauts that the magic touch of all-star dom won't have a thing to do with the score Saturday when Argos and Ottawa Roughriders face-off here in the final Big Four football playoffs. It's a good thing, because Argos would start four points and two all-stars down.

The fifth annual Big Four all-star team, announced last night by the Canadian Press, includes four Roughriders and two Argos. As the all-stars won't count more than other players out there Saturday, Argos will start only four points in arrears, having lost the first of the two-game series 15 to 11.

Here is the all-star lineup, selected for the Canadian Press by sports writers and coaches:

Flying wing — John Ferraro, Montreal.

Half — Stan O'Neil, Ottawa.

Half — Huck Welch, Hamilton.

Half (secondary defence) — Abe Ellowitz, Montreal.

Quarter — Arnie Morrison, Ottawa.

Snap — Dave Ryan, Montreal.

Inside — Tiny Herman, Ottawa.

Inside — Jim Palmer, Argos.

Middle — Dave Sprague, Ottawa.

Middle — Tommy Burns, Montreal.

Outside — Wes Cutler, Argos.

Outside — Jimmy Simpson, Hamilton.

If anyone wanted a team to stand up to his outfit man-for-man, he wouldn't have much trouble getting it from performers who just failed to make the all-stars. Voting was close for more than half the positions.

Reviews Progress Of Printing Trade

Peter Blom of Los Angeles was the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Government Printing, Crafts and Social Club on Tuesday evening last at Speedies' Cafe. Mr. Blom, who is an expert, gave an interesting talk on the offset presswork dealing with the rapid progress in the printing industry during the last hundred years. He stated that a hundred years ago it required two men to produce 600 impressions a day, while the new model offset press would produce in three hours the same amount of work which in the olden days took 44 men on 22 presses to produce. He further stated that in many instances offset was replacing letterpress printing, and that so great was the demand for offset presses that one well-known firm of manufacturers could not guarantee delivery of orders within a year of ordering. Mr. Blom also gave a brief review of trade conditions in the larger centres of the United States. He answered many questions dealing with offset printing, which clearly showed that he had a thorough knowledge of his subject.

Preceding the address a short business session was held with Frank Humphrey in the chair. During the social hour musical items were rendered by E. Holgate, violinist, and Steve Lookman, baritone, accompanied by Mrs. G. H. E. Green. Community singing was led by J. C. Warren. At the close of the evening T. J. Liddell expressed the thanks and appreciation of the club to the speaker and assisting artists.

A new method of developing latent fingerprints on polished furniture and other greasy surfaces from which they could not be obtained under old methods has been reported to the American Chemical Society.

Mayhew and McGeer Stress Trade Growth

English-speaking Entente
Needed in Cause of Peace

"If I had thought it necessary to go onto an election platform with no other purpose than that of fighting a man, I would be home looking after my roofing and paper business," Robert W. Mayhew, Liberal by-election candidate, declared to Ward Four Liberals in the Sir James Douglas School auditorium last night.

His campaign was not one of personalities. It was one claiming support for a Liberal administration which, during the last two years, had shown a record of achievement worthy of endorsement.

Mr. Mayhew was supported by G. G. McGeer, K.C., M.P.; Alan Chambers, G. A. A. Hebdon and Harold Beckwith. M. B. Jackson, K.C., was chairman.

Mr. Mayhew reviewed the great improvement in trade under the courageous, aggressive Liberal policy before stating his opposition to the system of force used by R. B. Bennett during his term in power.

No one could be fully informed on the effects of the trade agreement revisions under contemplation at Ottawa, he said. But he would make it his business to see that the interests of Victoria and British Columbia would be protected as far as possible, he said.

He voiced his support of the Liberal social service work and the housing scheme, before making a plea for support at the polls.

PLEA FOR PEACE

An urgent appeal to Victoria to meet the wishes of the Empire in fostering cordial relations with the United States in an effort to effect an English-speaking entente in the cause of peace, was voiced by Mr. McGeer. The city could answer that appeal by supporting the Liberal candidate and thereby endorsing the King administration. At the same time, he declared, Victoria would be securing a representative that would have the ear of cabinet ministers and the Premier, and would be able to lay before them the case for this part of Canada to the best interests of those living here.

Attacking the Bennett tariffs, he declared:

"We've paid a terrible price to learn that the fault with 'R.B.' is that in trading he said 'One to you and 100 to me.' Canada, under Bennett, tried to get too much. Under King it was enjoying the advantages of increasing goodwill both within the Empire and outside."

Mr. McGeer spoke of the benefits to Canada of the United States tourist business, of the opening of the U.S. market for lumber, and the friendship of the United States in an alliance which could work for the cause of peace.

"The best friendship that we people of Canada can have is friendship with the United States," he declared.

He attacked the Conservative candidate's stand on the Alaska Highway and emphasized the importance of Victoria having a strong representative in the federal government.

LONG WAY FROM OTTAWA

"It's a long way from here to Ottawa. But you would be surprised how much further it is from Ottawa to Vancouver and Victoria," he said.

Alan Chambers confined his remarks to a reply to C.C.F. charges the King administration had failed to implement recommendations of the National Unemployment Commission. The Liberal government, he said, in addition to fostering employment through greater trade, had adopted the commission's recommendation calling for immediate aid for transients to the extent of rehabilitating 23,000 on farms, had instituted vocational instruction courses, stimulated construction through the Home Improvement Plan, had before it a project for slum clearances, and had brought forward unemployment insurance.

Mr. Beckwith deplored the zeal of the C.C.F. candidates, whose enthusiasm had carried them beyond the bounds of facts in their talks. He ridiculed the "flag-flapping" of R. L. Maitland, K.C., Conservative, and referred to Bruce A. McKelvie's change of heart on the Alaska Road proposal.

Mr. Hebdon replied to the charge the Liberals had never fought an issue, but a man. He declared the by-election was primarily for the election of a representative, but that Mr. Mayhew considered the issue as a call for support of the Liberal policies.

CONCERT PLAN DRIVE CLOSING

Community Concerts Hope to Have 500 Memberships
By Tomorrow

Intending patrons are advised the campaign for members for the series of concerts known as the Community Concerts will come to a close tomorrow evening at 6. The membership is limited this year to 500, and when this goal is reached the members are assured of three splendid concerts during the season.

These concerts will be attended by members only, and it will not be possible to get tickets for any single concert, and no memberships will be taken after tomorrow.

One feature of belonging to the Community Concert Association is that any member of the association is allowed to attend community concerts in any place in the United States or Canada where they are being held. The cards also are transferable, and this means any member of a family, or a friend, may use a member's card if the member is unable to attend a concert.

No one will profit by bringing these concerts to Victoria, and neither will there be any loss to those sponsoring the scheme. It means a series of three concerts by famous artists, which will fill a long felt need in the life of the community.

"Whether musical or not, it would be a fine thing for people of Victoria to help put this plan over, and there are many young people unable to afford buying a membership who would welcome the gift of a membership card in what should be a real community effort," said one of the officials of the association today.

All information may be obtained at the headquarters, 635 Yates Street, telephone G 7412.

Political Advice Given Farmers

TORONTO (CP).—"I would not be too sure there are not agencies of Fascism and Communism at work in Canada today," Farquhar Oliver, United Farmers of Ontario member-elect of the Ontario Legislature for Grey South, told the United Farm Young People of Ontario at the annual U.F.O. convention here Thursday.

He urged farmers to unite in one strong organization to combat these agencies and adopt "the middle-way political philosophy of co-operation."

NANTON, Alta. (CP).—Capt. Alexander McKay, pioneer resident of Nanton, who celebrated his 102nd birthday November 4, died at his home here Thursday. A native of Stornoway, Lewis Island, Scotland, he came to Canada in 1849 and for many years sailed the Great Lakes.

MEN WHO FEEL OLD

Get Back New Youth
Energy, Vitality

Too many men today feel tired out all the time—can't work, hate to get up mornings, haven't the vitality to do the things they used to do. A weak unhealthy liver caused by modern living, soft foods, lack of exercise, is the chief reason. Your liver is the storehouse for glucose or the "energy part" of the food you eat—it supplies energy to muscles, tissues and glands. If it is not strong and active no wonder you feel old! Take "Fruit-a-tives", it will build up your liver like nothing else will. You'll be surprised how young you soon feel. 25c., 50c., all Druggists.

CHINA DIOCESE WORK IS TOLD

Bishop Tsen of Honan Ad-dresses Meeting at St. Mary's Hall

Greetings from one of the most remote Anglican dioceses in the world, that of Honan in China, were brought to a capacity audience in St. Mary's Hall, Oak Bay, on Wednesday evening by Rt. Rev. P. Lindel Tsen, Bishop of Honan.

Bishop H. E. Sexton of Columbia was chairman and introduced the speaker. Bishop Tsen compared the appearance of Honan to the Canadian prairies, but said it was the least fertile of all the provinces of China, with soil so sandy that the farmers, who made up the greater proportion of the population, had difficulty tilling the soil.

Honan was also one of the youngest and the smallest provinces in China.

The diocese was founded in 1910 by Bishop White, now in Toronto, and today there are 17 organized parishes with 2,000 Chinese Christians, Bishop Tsen said.

Major Sisman Back on Board

Trustee Major George Sisman, elected last January to a two-year term, will complete his tenure of office on the Esquimalt School Board. Last night the board elected him to fill the technical vacancy created by himself.

Major Sisman, who was absent in England during the summer, was declared to have lost his qualifications as a school trustee by being absent from three consecutive monthly meetings of the board. The municipal council was informed officially of the vacancy, but took no action, so the appointment was left to the board itself.

The board last night also completed arrangements for the use of Lamson Street and Esquimalt High Schools of the Esquimalt Athletic Club hall for basketball practices.

Accounts totaling $487.81 for October and current salaries of $2,748.06 were ordered paid.

Encouragement For Esquimalt

Appeal For Compensation For Federal Property Progresses, Minister Says

The Dominion Government is giving full consideration to the appeal of the municipality of Esquimalt for compensation for the extent of tax free federal property within its borders, the municipal council was assured yesterday evening by Hon. Ian Mackenzie, Minister of National Defence.

Reeve Alexander Lockley, the six councillors and G. H. Pullen, municipal clerk, interviewed the minister at the Empress Hotel.

The minister gave the council a friendly reception and promised to further the municipality's appeal. Reeve Lockley said this morning. Mr. Mackenzie had said progress was being made towards an adjustment.

In the past the council has suggested that the compensation be in the form of an annual grant.

Dominion Government property in the form of army barracks and the naval dockyard represents 13.18 per cent of the total land assessment of the municipality and 78.8 per cent of Esquimalt's $10,227,095 assessment for improvements.

LOSS EXCEEDS REVENUE

In 1935 the actual revenue lost on crown properties, taken at the then rate of 40 mills on land and 50 per cent of improvements, exceeded the total revenue of the municipality from all sources by approximately $88,000, Reeve Lockley said.

This year, with new federal construction and a tax rate of 42 mills, the excess was still higher, he added.

Improvements on Dominion Government property in Esquimalt are assessed at a total of $8,072,750.

GAME POLICY IS DEFENDED

Wisner Says He Will Fight to Last Ditch For Pheasant Culture

The value of fish and bird culture to provide game for British Columbia sportsmen was the subject of debate in the Legislature yesterday when the game department estimates, totaling $236,172 were passed.

The vote included $40,830 for game fish culture, up $25,000 from this year, to enable the game branch to take over several of the fish hatcheries closed by the Dominion Government to propagate fighting trout; and $16,975 for game bird propagation.

E. E. Winch, C.C.F. Burnaby, questioned the policy of raising practically domestic pheasants and then turning them loose for "so-called sportsmen" to hunt. This brought Attorney-General Gordon Wisner, a hunter himself, to his feet to defend strongly the whole plan for increasing game birds and fish. He said every dollar spent came back three to fourfold in licenses and tourist expenditure.

R. L. Maitland, K.C., Conservative, Point Grey, questioned, if the province was wise in taking over the fish hatcheries when the Dominion had closed them. Mr. Wisner pointed out that the Dominion had decided to discontinue them, but that the game board could find excellent use for them in increasing the stock of fighting fish in the streams.

Colin Cameron, C.C.F., Comox, demanded protection for the farmers against pheasants eating their crops, suggesting open season on birds in farming areas.

Mr. Wisner replied that pheasants did not do so much damage to crops as people thought. The game club in the Okanagan had made an autopsy of 50 birds, he said, and disclosed nothing but cutworms and wireworms in their stomachs and no indication they were injuring crops.

Mrs. D. G. Steeves, C.C.F., North Vancouver, said pheasants ate bulbs by the hundreds from people's gardens in the Point

Grey district and Mr. Cameron said his wife had nearly divorced him for not shooting peasants that were eating her tomatoes and potatoes.

Attorney-General Wisner said his department would "fight to the last ditch" any move to cut down the pheasant vote.

Alderman W. T. Straith, Liberal, Victoria, said the new fish propagation plan was particularly important to Vancouver Island, which had long been pressing for improvement in the matter of game to attract tourists.

Capt. Macgregor Macintosh, Conservative, The Islands, and R. W. Bruhn, Independent, Salmon Arm, urged reduction of the $10 non-resident fishing license fee to encourage visits for short periods.

PLEA IS MADE FOR SQUIRRELS

The lowly squirrel was the best forester in British Columbia, but the animals stood in danger of extermination today because the game branch has placed it on the list of fur-bearing animals open to be hunted, R. W. Bruhn, Independent, Salmon Arm, told the Legislature Thursday during consideration of estimates of the game branch.

"Small boys are shooting them by the score. I know of one boy

New Bill Stresses Educational Side at Industrial Schools

First step toward what may be eventually be the establishment of a Borstal system in British Columbia was taken by Hon. G. M. Weir, Provincial Secretary, when he introduced in the Legislature yesterday new measures covering the industrial schools for boys and girls.

Dr. Weir said an important principle in the changes will be to get away from the penal idea and stress the educational side of the industrial schools. There is an alteration in the age limits for children committed to the schools.

The Provincial Secretary also introduced a bill to change mothers' pensions to mothers' who shot 100 of them in one place. As a result, our reforestation is suffering, for the squirrels are not left to carry the cones down," he said.

He urged Attorney-General Wisner to take action to save the animals.

allowances. The rates of allowance remain the same, $42.50 per month for a mother and one child under sixteen, $7.50 for each additional child and $7.50 for a husband totally disabled. The new bill also makes it easier for foster mothers to get allowances.

Dr. Weir introduced a change in the Public Libraries Act designed to assist the working of consolidated library districts.

HARTMANS IN DOMINION FILM

Jane Withers Joins Ven-triloquists in Fun-thrilling Show

There are hundreds of laughs in "45 Fathers," fun-packed Twentieth Century-Fox picture starring Jane Withers, and featuring Thomas Beck, Louise Henry and the inimitable Hartmans, eccentric ventriloquists and Broadway satirists of the dance, which opens today at the Dominion Theatre.

A group of millionaires draws lots to determine "which lucky man is going to have his life brightened by this sweet little girl?" and then shift for help as Jane starts throwing things around and the ventriloquists Hartmans start throwing their dancing, voices and discretion to the winds in the funniest picture Jane ever made.

The highly amusing screen play by Frances Hyland and Albert Ray based on a story by Mary Bickel, first finds Jane with the Hartmans, aboard a vessel bound for New York, where she is to be adopted by the members of a millionaire explorer's club.

"DEAD END" AT PLAZA MONDAY

Hollywood has lost its rugged individualism and succumbed to the lure of the Fauntleroy road to fame. Studios have found that it is easier to secure hundreds of well-mannered little gentlemen with Freddie Bartholomew curls than one genuine little tough guy.

The Goldwyn studios, in casting for "Dead End," which comes to the Plaza Theatre on Monday, were in a quandary. Mr. Goldwyn had brought from New York Billy Halop, Huntz Hall, Bobby Jordan, Leo Gorcey, Gabriel Dell and Bernard Punsley, the six kids who had done so much to assure the success of the Broadway production of the Kingsley play. However, 20 more kids, from the ages of six to 13, were needed and a call was issued.

When William Wyler, the director, surveyed the line-up of boys offered for his approval he was dismayed. Here were children who had apparently never disobeyed a parental command. How was a director to pick potential gangsters from among their well-ordered ranks?

Mr. Wyler announced to the assemblage that what he wanted were toughs who looked ready to fight on the drop of an ace from a sleeve.

Fortunately, a few of the boys decided to mutiny. Tearing themselves away from their parents, they dashed back to the Goldwyn lot and Mr. Wyler. In the required disarray and with a good display of incorrigibility, the returning boys were awarded parts in the picture.

"Dead End," with Sylvia Sydney, Joel McCrea co-starred and Humphrey Bogart in a leading role, is a United Artists' release.

OAK BAY THEATRE

"The Man I Marry," a swiftly paced screen comedy that ripples with romance, is now at the Oak Bay Theatre. This Universal film—stars Doris Nolan, the glamorous new personality who has taken Hollywood by storm after scoring a hit on Broadway in "Night of January 16th."

Leading the loop with a clear three-point margin, Brentford plays at Griffin Park against West Bromwich Albion. The Bees are favored to win.

Return last week-end of Ted Drake, Arsenal's starry centre-forward, after a long lay-off due to injuries, coincided with the Gunners' first victory since October 2—a convincing 3 to 0 shut-out over Charlton. They play at home this week against Leeds United and followers are looking for a continuance of their game-winning form. With Drake's return, the left wing, Bastin, showed to advantage, nothing two of his team's goals against the Athletics.

SECOND DIVISION

After 16 matches without a defeat, Coventry City, second division pacemakers, with Sheffield United, lost to Sheffield Wednesday 1 to 0 a week ago. The City goes to Blackburn tomorrow and is favored to triumph over the Rovers.

The four-star attraction in this division, however, is billed for Birmingham, where the high-class Aston Villa eleven enters the United. Villa Park has proved a "honey" for Sheffield, the team scoring once in five visits.

Questions of Sunday sports was brought up again this week when Switzerland requested its international contest with England be played on the Sabbath. The football association refused the request and it is believed in sports circles consideration will be given to the questions at a later date. The match is set for Saturday, May 21.

GLASGOW—Major attraction of tomorrow's Scottish Football League card is the Rangers-Hearts tangle, and Ibrox Park, home of Glasgow's dynamite-laden team, is expected to be filled to capacity.

Zealously protecting their sixteen-match streak without a loss, Rangers will have to be "right on" this week to keep the column clean. The champions lost only three games in the 1936-7 campaign—but two went to the Edinburgh entry.

The principals are deadlocked in second place, one point behind Motherwell.

Viewing for four-star notice is another contest at Glasgow, between Celtic and Falkirk. The Celts, cup-holders, are two points behind Rangers and Hearts with 23, while Falkirk has 21. The Brockville Park eleven, up from the second division two years, are one of the surprises of the league and are counted on to give Celtic a real battle. Motherwell's chances of retaining leadership are promising. The Fir Parkers go to Ayr. Dundee, early-season pacemaker, is expected to regain its form against Hibernians at Easter Road.

The second division also boasts an outstanding game—Albion and Raith Rovers, on the former's ground. Raith leads the circuit, three points ahead of Albion. East Fife, in third place, should have no trouble with Leith Athletic.

To Victoria Theatregoers:

With a great deal of pride the Plaza Theatre announces that it has signed contracts for the United Artists programme of pictures for 1937-38.

"Dead End," the Samuel Goldwyn production, with Sylvia Sydney, Joel McCrea and Humphrey Bogart is the first of this group. It is a story of three women, living on a dead-end street, their choices of life, their loves, their problems. It is one of the year's outstanding pictures, one you can't afford to miss.

Others in this group of outstanding hits are the year's finest cinema achievements. Such films as "The Hurricane"; Gary Cooper in "Marco Polo"; Barbara Stanwyck in "Stella Dallas"; Leslie Howard and Joan Blondell in "Standin'"; "The Goldwyn Follies"; Frederic March and Carole Lombard in "Nothing Sacred," and Gary Cooper and Merle Oberon in "The Cowboy and the Lady" are an example of what you will see first run at the Plaza. Many of them are in technicolor.

Sincerely,
RALPH CALLADINE,
Mgr. Plaza Theatre.

Then Horner made his bid. He passed to Pep Kelly for a goal that put the visitors ahead and with Kelly aided Red Metz in the final counter just 11 seconds before the end. Turk Broda, erratic but brilliant Leaf goalie, did one of his starry jobs in turning back the Ranger invaders.

The Wing's triumph was as easy for the Detroit fans to take as their Thanksgiving dinners. The newcomers Jack Adams has brought up to replace slumping players had a big share and one of them, Carl Liscombe, rapped in the second goal on a pass from Larry Aurie.

Liscombe's counter came half-way through the second chapter and added to Gordon Pettenger's in the first. Aurie, second in the division only to Marty Barry in last season's scoring, got his first goal of the new schedule in the third period while Earl Selbert of the Hawks was in the penalty box. The home side was short when Johnny Gottselig reduced the lead to 3 to 1 but Herb Lewis topped off the parade with a goal within a minute.

Detroit drew eight of the 15 penalties in a rough display. Six players were in the penalty box at one time in the middle frame.

Summaries follow:

RANGERS—TORONTO

First period—No scoring. Penalty: Boll.

Second period—1, Toronto, Jackson (Drillon, Apps), 6:42. Penalties: Coulter, Kelly.

Third period—2, Rangers, Kirk (Pratt, Hextall), 7:03; 3, Toronto, Kelly (Horner), 15:59; 4, Toronto, Metz (Kelly, Horner), 19:49.

DETROIT—CHICAGO

First period—1, Detroit, Pettenger (Lewis), 9:16. Penalties: MacDonald, Selbert, Doran, Kendall, Bowman.

Second period—2, Detroit, Liscombe (Aurie, Drouillard), 9:49. Penalties: Jenkins, Bowman, Young, Thompson, Lewis and Selbert.

IN CUPID ROLE

Nine-year-old Singer Starred in "Make a Wish" at the Atlas

Silver-throated Bobby Breen, youngest of the screen's great singers, plays the role of a veritable Cupid in "Make a Wish," released through RKO Radio, and now at the Atlas Theatre.

It is this nine-year-old boy who engineers a romance between Marion Claire, as his young mother, and Basil Rathbone, as composer of operettas, in spite of the fact that the former is already engaged to Ralph Forbes. The three at first find a strong mutual attraction because each is intensely interested in music, and the atmosphere of a beautiful country lakeside serves to speed the romance. "The eternal triangle," however, brings complications which seriously threaten the happiness of all concerned, and the story reaches its climax in a surprising series of events.

CUT OUT THESE RECIPES AND KEEP THEM SAFELY

Robt. G. Jackson, M.D.

Christmas recipes you will want to keep always. Why? Because they do away with "pasty", hard-to-digest ingredients—are healthful instead of harmful. They will not be clogging masses of indigestibility, but granular and porous to the digestive fluids which will quickly mix with them and quickly digest them. Delicious! Follow these recipes just once, and only these will ever interest you again!

CHRISTMAS CAKE

1 lb. raisins, stoned
1/2 lb. currants
1/2 lb. pitted dates, chopped coarse
1/2 lb. cherries
1/2 lb. almonds, halved
1/2 lb. pearl, chopped or sliced
2 teaspoons baking soda
2 cups Roman Meal
4 eggs
2 cups pastry flour
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon allspice
1/2 teaspoon grated nutmeg
2 tablespoons molasses
2 1/2 cups brown sugar
1 pint rich sour cream
1 teaspoon (scant) salt.

Prepare fruits, add nuts, peel. Soak Roman Meal in half pint of sour cream for about 2 hours. Cream sugar, molasses and eggs and add this to mixture after adding Roman Meal. Sift flour and spices and add to mixture—add balance of sour cream in which soda has been dissolved. Mix well and bake in slow oven for 2 1/2 hours. This makes a delicious 6-lb. cake without using butter.

CHRISTMAS PUDDING

1 lb. raisins
1/2 lb. currants
1/2 lb. dates
1/2 lb. almonds
1/2 lb. pearl
1/2 lb. cherries
1 lb. brown sugar
4 eggs
1 cup grated raw potato
1 cup grated raw carrot
1/2 lb. chopped suet
4 cups Roman Meal
1 teaspoon allspice
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 grated nutmeg

Put fruit, nuts, carrot, potato, into basin, dredge well with 1 cup Roman Meal. Mix chopped suet with 3 cups Roman Meal and add to fruit, etc. Cream sugar and eggs together and add this to mixture. Butter pudding bowl and pack to within one inch of top. Cover with waxed paper and tie cloth over bowl. Put in hot steamer and steam for about 4 hours. This recipe does not require baking soda or baking powder although a little of either may be added if desired.

MEAT & POULTRY DRESSINGS

1 1/2 cups Roman Meal
2 teaspoons salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon sage or other preferred seasoning
2 tablespoons melted butter
4 tablespoons onion, chopped fine
2 eggs
1 1/2 cups milk.

Soak Roman Meal with one cup milk for a few hours, or overnight. Break egg in measuring cup and add 1/2 cup milk. Mix other ingredients, then stir in milk and egg. The granules of Roman Meal will absorb the moisture during cooking and when ready the dressing will be just nicely moist. The quantities given are for a 5-lb. fowl—for larger fowl increase the quantities proportionately. The quantity of seasoning may be increased or reduced to suit individual taste.

BIGGEST MAN NOT RICHEST

Service to Country Greatest Ambition of Youth, Says J. S. Woodworth, M.P.

"The C.C.F. has more to do than elect King Gordon, or others, to the House of Commons. It must bring home to Canada the fact that these modern forms of stealing must be swept from our midst," our youth must realize that the biggest man in our midst is not the wealthiest. Our children should be taught that the greatest ambition in life is not to make money, but to serve their country," declared J. S. Woodworth, Dominion leader of the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation, before a full campaign meeting in the James Bay C.C.F. headquarters, in support of J. King Gordon, candidate in the federal by-election.

Welsh Lee was chairman, and other speakers were King Gordon and Grant McNeill, C.C.F. M.P. for Vancouver North.

Mr. Woodworth, who Prof. Gordon directed their remarks in a challenge to youth of today, the federal leader saying: "You must realize that it's the older people that make the laws—it's the older people that make the wars—but it's the younger people that pay the price."

While conditions today were not generally as bad as in the days of slavery, Mr. Woodworth felt some conditions were worse. At least the slave was given a living.

Illustrating the case of a young boy who was sent to jail for petty theft, Mr. Woodworth said the greatest thieves today went scot free. Thus he paralleled them to the great slave owners of the slave days.

Mr. Woodworth said he was a firm believer in labor unions and believed the right to organize was one of labor's inalienable rights. The value of union organization, he had learned in his early life as a longshoreman in Vancouver, he said.

If bankers, manufacturers, transportation interests and doctors had the right to organize, surely labor had a similar right to protect its own interests, he said.

FIGHT FOR LABOR
In his fight on behalf of labor, Mr. Woodworth said he had introduced a bill to make it a crime for an employer to refuse an employee the right to organize, but had been shouted down by members of both other parties in the House.

"It has always puzzled me until some time ago to understand why young people were not interested in politics," Prof. Gordon said. Now, however, he realized they could not enthuse over the old-line parties.

"I know young people and I know that young Canadians are not interested in the handouts, the patronage and the promise of promotion that is part of the stock-in-trade of the old-time parties," he said. They were interested in getting into some movement that was big enough for them. Also they were catching a vision of a great cause that was not an old man's cause, but a cause that sought the best that Canadian youth could give it.

END POVERTY
There was a challenge to youth to end the poverty in a land where poverty should not exist. Youth always responded when the task was big enough and great enough, and Prof. Gordon congratulated youth on its response to the C.C.F.

The C.C.F. cause, he said, was one of hope and one that must succeed, because it had the right material to rebuild Canada.

The hope was that youth would see a new society arise, from which fear and poverty would be banished and there would be freedom as never before. "And you will see it," he added.

The young people of today had to be single-minded in their endeavor today with storm clouds of depression and war approaching, he said.

W. H. NESBITT PASSES AWAY

His Death in New Westminster Recalls Pioneer Steamboat Days

A link with the days when picturesque steamboats connected Victoria with the mainland, and when rate wars and speed wars were always being waged, was severed with the death in New Westminster this week of William H. Nesbitt.

When the famous old Yosemite and R. P. Rithet plied between Victoria and New Westminster, the late Mr. Nesbitt acted as purser and was business agent many times for the late Capt. John Irving, one of the most notable shipping men of the day.

Mr. Nesbitt was born in County Cavan, Ireland, 73 years ago. He was a nephew of the late Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Nesbitt of Erin Hall, Carberry Gardens, Victoria, and frequently came to Victoria in his younger days, at one time living here.

He arrived here from Ireland in 1887 and followed the sea from that day. He served on the lakes of the interior and on the Fraser River.

He went to New Westminster in 1893, and the following year, while an officer on the sternwheeler Transfer saw his ship room the Fraser Valley during the big flood. At one time they tied up alongside the old Harrison Hotel at Chilliwack, several miles away from the main river.

Mr. Nesbitt was purser on Ss. Beaver, under Capt. Odin, which led the flotilla of boats at the official opening of the old Fraser River bridge in 1904.

In his later years, in partnership with the late Capt. Charles Seymour, he was interested in Ss. Skeena, last of the passenger-freight sternwheelers to ply between New Westminster, Chilliwack and Ladner.

Surviving Mr. Nesbitt is a widow, a daughter, Mrs. Lacy Fisher of Vancouver, and a son, Richard T. Nesbitt, at home. The funeral took place this afternoon in Chilliwack.

PILE DRIVER ASHORE

VANCOUVER (CP)—A pile driver was driven ashore at Jericho beach in English Bay and several scows were set adrift yesterday by a westerly gale which followed a heavy rain Wednesday night. No other damage was reported.

Last C.P.R. Ships Leave Montreal

MONTREAL (CP)—The liners Montrose and Duchess of Richmond sailed yesterday to complete the Canadian Pacific passenger season at St. Lawrence River ports. The line's vessels during the winter will call at Saint John and Halifax.

DOWN THE GANGWAY

Transportation officials will figure prominently on the passenger list of R.M.S. Empress of Canada, which will sail tomorrow for Hawaii and the Orient with 275 passengers.

They include Stanley Dodwell, chairman of Dodwell and Company, well-known shipping concern and agents for the Blue Funnel Line, bound for Hongkong; R. M. Fetterly, Canadian Pacific freight agent at Shanghai, who is returning to China for the reopening of that port to shipping, and C. R. Cherry, newly-appointed chairman of Bowstead and Company, C.P.R. agents at Singapore, Strait Settlements.

W. C. Sloan of Seattle, manager of the Northern Pacific Railway, and his daughter, Dorothy, will disembark at Honolulu.

Other Far Eastern travelers will be Bishop Arthur Moore, recently elected president of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Nashville, Tenn., who is on his way to Japan, and a group of Dominican missionaries en route to Japan from Quebec, Father B. Trahan, son of Mr. Justice Trahan, and Fathers R. Hebert, B. Laese and H. Forget.

Eighty travelers will stop off at Honolulu, including Most Rev. H. J. O'Leary, archbishop of Edmonton, and Father R. A. Macdonell.

BODY RECOVERED

Major H. Brown To Retire Here

VANCOUVER (CP)—Major Harold Brown, managing director of Union Steamship Company of British Columbia, will retire at the end of next year.

Around the Docks

PLEASED WITH RESCUE

Rescue of the entire crew of Ss. Nollington Court, reported a total loss off the coast of Haiti, was good news to friends of the ship's complement on the Victoria waterfront.

Capt. J. C. Ford and the officers and men of the Nollington Court were well known here among the shipping fraternity. "That's great," said Henry King, of King Bros., local agents for the ship, when he heard of the rescue of Capt. Ford and his men. Mr. King is a close friend of Capt. Ford and personally knows several members of the ship's company.

"It's good news to us on the dock here. We knew many of the boys," said C. W. Tourtellotte, superintendent at the Ogden Point docks.

The Nollington Court sailed from Victoria October 18 last after loading 313,000 feet of lumber at the Ogden Point assembly plant, and completed at Port Alberni for the United Kingdom.

Before being taken over by the Canadian Transport Company, the Nollington Court was previously here October 5 from Montreal in the intercoastal service of the Vancouver-St. Lawrence Line.

She is a vessel of 3,773 tons net and was built in 1924 as the Constellation for the United British Steamship Company Ltd.

WINKLEIGH TO LOAD

To pick up a heavy parcel of lumber for the United Kingdom, Ss. Winkleigh will reach Victoria on Monday from the mainland. King Bros. reported today.

The Winkleigh will take on 1,000,000 feet at the Ogden Point docks.

Ss. Sedgpool will complete loading at Ogden Point this afternoon and is expected to get away about 4 for Port Alberni to complete.

RUSSIA NEARING PORT

Coming on from the Orient, Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Russia is scheduled to reach Victoria on Monday next with passengers, cargo and mails. The white liner is making a good trans-Pacific run and is expected to arrive here first thing Monday morning.

GO ABOARD HERE

Among those who will go aboard the Empress of Canada here will be Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Hudec and Miss A. E. Hudec, who are returning to Yokohama after spending the summer in Victoria, and S. E. Levy, returning to Shanghai.

NEBRASKA ON MONDAY

The refrigerator ship Nebraska of the Royal Mail Line is expected in port Monday, it was announced today by Adam Moffatt, local agent for the Holland-America and Royal Mail Lines.

The Nebraska will go alongside the Ogden Point docks, where it will be more convenient to load for the homeward trip a consignment of frozen fish from the adjoining plant of the Island Freezing and Packing Company Ltd.

The vessel will discharge about 125 tons of freight here.

CITY'S CASE BEING HEARD

Alderman James Adam and City Comptroller-Treasurer D. A. Macdonald left Victoria last night to present the city's case to George S. Mooney, municipalities authority engaged to compile the municipalities' brief for submission to the Rowell Commission, in Vancouver today.

Preliminary discussions were held here yesterday with Mr. Mooney spending the day in Victoria prior to returning for the official session today.

During his visit Mr. Mooney interviewed the mayor and several aldermen on the position of municipalities under the present set-up.

"Since the time of Confederation, the duties and responsibilities imposed upon municipalities have increased manifold," said Mr. Mooney. "There has been, however, no increase in the source of revenue, or the taxation base, which is land."

"As a result of the cost of increased services, which the municipalities are called upon to render, the taxation base is no longer adequate to support the load," he continued. "Either there must be a redistribution of responsibility, or a reallocation of the tax base. And if there is not, bankruptcy, or the curtailment of certain services, is inevitable."

Missing Yacht Reported Safe

HALIFAX (CP)—The 34-foot yacht Star Quest was heading toward Sheet Harbor today after being missing nine days on a trip from Baddeck, N.S., to Halifax. The trip ordinarily takes three days.

Delayed by head winds and buffeted continually by storms, the little auxiliary-powered pleasure craft crept into Moser River, 70 miles from here, Wednesday night. She was expected to reach Halifax today.

The yacht carried a crew of three: Capt. Wilson, Phillip MacKenzie and Ralph Peneault, all of Baddeck.

Still being sought was the coal-carrying schooner Rose Lee,
